Other News

From the Family Camp Committee: We are looking forward to seeing you at camp this week! Check-in begins at 4 PM on Tuesday afternoon (campsites are available at 3 PM) Please note that we will be starting dinner a bit later on Tuesday, at 6 PM, to allow time for arrival and unpacking. If you are an overnight guest, you should have received lodging information via email. If you did not receive this, please check with Gerrit Kleyn or Michelle Bilkes.

From the Health Care Committee: Over the past year, we have been working with an organization Protect my Ministry to provide child protection training and personal background checks for those who are employed by or volunteer in our congregation. In order to ensure the protection of the children under our care and to fulfill legal requirements, we have received a mandate from the consistory to require anyone 18 years of age or older to complete the training and the background check. This is now mandatory if you wish to volunteer in or be employed by our congregation. If you are employed by or volunteer in our congregation (or wish to), please contact Mrs. Cindy Vanden Toorn (email Cindy at: simonevdt@yahoo.com) immediately in order to be signed up to take the training and complete the background check. This is provided free of charge to you (the church is covering the cost of this service).

Please remember to sign up for this year's Puritan Reformed Conference, August 25-27. The theme for this year is The Beauty and Glory of the Christian Worldview. Together, we will look at what the Bible has to say about such topics as the Christian's view of everyday life, of suffering, of sexuality, and much, much, more. Guest speakers will include Derek Thomas, Charles Barrett, Brian Cosby, and several PRS faculty members. Register online or call the seminary at 977-0599. A la carte options are available. For more information visit us online at www.prts.edu or ask when you call Ann Dykema or Chris Hanna.
