Helping Without Hurting

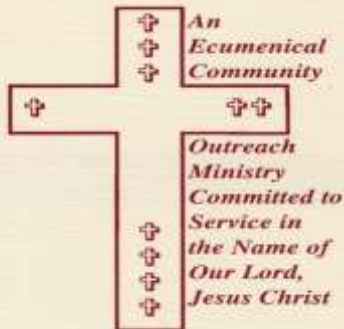

The Bible says much about poverty and the responsibility followers of Jesus Christ have in caring for the poor. However, in our effort to help, we may be doing more harm than good. We will be thinking through and discussing not only what the Bible has to say about poverty but also learning how we as a church are seeking to more effectively minister to the needy in our community.

We will be using the excellent books When Helping Hurts and the follow up, Helping Without Hurting in Church Benevolence as our main resources.

We hope you will join us as we discuss this important topic.
