Seeking "Allies"

Harvest has teamed up with Cornerstone church to participate in a Work-life program to help those who are unemployed or underemployed in our community.

We are actively seeking "ALLIES", people who can walk alongside folks ready for a change, to form a circle of support to help them reach life goals.

First meeting is Sunday, January 21, 5:30 pm at Cornerstone. For more information please contact Tom Dunn, 443.624.0101 and Cal Metz, 301.651.8909.

The following short video will help explain the program.

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday

January 21st

Will you help us?
Together we can make a difference in Southern Maryland in 2018

"This January we mark the 45th anniversary of the Roe vs Wade decision that legalized abortion on a national level in our country. The statistics are sobering: Fifty-nine million babies' lives lost, 40% of women impacted by an abortion decision. One out of five known pregnancies end in abortion, with over 2500 women choosing abortion every day. If you add to that the number who take abortifacients like ella and Plan B before they know if they are pregnant, the number of lives lost daily is staggering."
