Seeking “Allies” for Worklife Program

A Worklife program is a program to help those who are unemployed or underemployed in our community.

We are actively seeking “ALLIES”, people who can walk alongside folks ready for a change, to form a circle of support to help them reach life goals.

If you are interested, join our first meeting this Sunday, January 21, 5:30 pm at Cornerstone.

For more information please contact Tom Dunn, 443.624.0101 and Cal Metz, 301.651.8909.

Please click on the short video on the right corner which will help explain the program or click > Jobs for Life: Flip the List

Inter-generational Sunday School

In the Next two weeks, the Inter-generational Sunday School participants will work on projects to serve our community.

.....Serving our community.....

Please join this church-wide opportunity by attending Sunday School and/or donate to:

- 1) SMILE—non perishable foods
 - 2) College Student Care Packages—snacks, gift cards and small gifts.
 - 3) Community Workers—money (payable to Harvest with memo: Intergenerational SS) to offset costs to pack Appreciation Bags.
 - 4) Care Net Pregnancy Center—Donate fleece fabric to make baby blankets.
- Thank You to those who already donated.*

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday—Life Worth Saving

You will receive a Bulletin Insert this Sunday. Please take it home and read it. There are many ways you can support the work of Care Net Pregnancy Center including monetary donation by going to their website:
