Our Purpose & Passion

"For from the rising of the sun even to its setting, My Name will be great among the nations, and in every place incense is going to be offered to My Name, and a grain offering that is pure; for My Name will be great among the nations," says the Lord of hosts." - Malachi 1:11

The chief end of all mission work is the Glory of God. Our greatest concern is that His Name be great among the nations, from the rising to the setting of the sun (Malachi 1:11). We find our great purpose and constant motivation, not in man or his needs, but in God, His commitment to His own glory and our God-given desire to see Him glorified in every nation, tribe, people and language.

Although HeartCry recognizes the great importance of sending missionaries from the West to the un-evangelized peoples throughout the world, we believe that we are led of the Lord to support native or national missionaries so that they may evangelize their own peoples. Therefore, we seek to work with godly men and women of integrity and vision in the unreached world to help them evangelize and plant Churches among their own peoples.

Our Principles

* While we recognize that the needs of mankind are many and his sufferings are diverse, we believe that they all spring from a common origin - the fall of man and the corruption of his own heart. Therefore, we believe that the greatest benefit to mankind can be accomplished through the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the establishment of churches that preach the Word of God and minister according to its commands, precepts, and wisdom.
* Every need of this ministry will be obtained through prayer. We may share our missionary vision with others and even make known to them the specific tasks which the Lord has laid on our heart to do, but we may not raise support through prodding or manipulating our brothers and sisters in Christ. If this ministry is of the Lord, then He will be our Patron. If He is with us, He will direct His people to give and we will prosper. If He is not with us, we will not and should not succeed.
* We intend to never enlarge our field of labor by contracting debts. This is contrary to both the letter and the spirit of the New Testament. In secret prayer, God helping us, we will carry the needs of this ministry to the Lord and act according to the direction that He gives.
* We will not compete with other biblical mission agencies, but use the resources that God has given to us to work in partnership with them. If the Lord directs, we will sacrifice our own goals and resources that other mission works may be helped and the Kingdom of God increased.
* In meeting any need, those of us who are supported financially by this ministry will be the first to sacrifice all things necessary for the advancement of His Kingdom.
* We will not measure the success of this ministry by the amount of money given, Bibles distributed or national missionaries supported, but by the Lord’s blessing on the work.
* Our Goal is not to enlarge ourselves, or to become a key figure in the Great Commission, but to be faithful and obedient stewards by the grace that is given to us, that men may see our weakness and glorify God for His strength; that they may see our inability and glorify God for His faithfulness.
From our Desk: Sound doctrine is extremely important in the Christian life, but it is NOT the Christian life. Christianity is more than factual, it is relational - a personal relationship with God, through His Son, and in the power of the Holy Spirit. Christ is our life!

From our Desk

Greetings in the Name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the Gospel (II Timothy 1:10). It is our great joy and privilege to bring to you another edition of the HeartCry magazine. As always, it is filled with testimonies regarding the wonderful works of God. We have nothing else of which to boast, except of His power and goodness to us. As it is written, “Let him who boasts, boast in the Lord” (I Corinthians 1:31).

We hope and pray that this month finds you growing in the grace and knowledge of God, and that you are living a life pleasing to Him. As days turn into months and months turn into years, I am increasingly aware that our time on this earth is fleeting and subject to many uncertainties. It is, therefore, most necessary that we give the time we have back into the hands of the One who gave it. The wasted life is the one kept for itself. It is a hoarded talent, buried in the ground, and of no use to its Master. The life poured out freely for the glory of the Lord will see its reward and rejoice.

In this month’s edition of HeartCry, we have news from all around the world. James and Komuni Dhale give us a brief summary of what God has done in Asia. Brothers Simon, Spataru, and Banchik bring us an encouraging word from Israel. Brothers Palade and Tomeci send testimonies from the student work throughout Romania.

These are the best of times for the Kingdom of Christ. Although unnoticed by the secular world, the Gospel is spreading throughout the earth as never before! It is our great joy to share with you at least a small part of what is being done. We hope that every page brings to you a special blessing.

The following is a short note written in hopes of encouraging you to seek the face and good pleasure of God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength.

More than Knowledge

At HeartCry, it is our conviction that we should have the greatest concern for preaching the truth and the true Gospel. We are aware that our country and the world is filled with countless distortions of even the most foundational doctrines of Christianity. Superficial gospels, easy-believism, spectacular media presentations, and clever marketing strategies seem to be the rule of the day. Biblical doctrines like the radical depravity of man, the justice of God, the blood sacrifice of Christ, repentance, holiness, and eternal judgment only seem to get in the way.

In opposition to our times, we must be diligent in our studies, zealous for the truth, and careful in our language. The souls of men and their eternal destiny hang in the balance.

Truth and doctrine are important, nevertheless, we must also recognize that we can have all of these things and still not have enough. The propositional truths of Scripture must be believed, taught, and defended, but the Christian life involves much more than propositional truths, it involves a living relationship with God the Father, through Jesus Christ, and in the power of the Holy Spirit. To the church in Ephesus, Jesus gave a great warning:

“I know your deeds and your toil and perseverance, and that you cannot tolerate evil men, and you put to the test those who call themselves apostles, and they are not, and you found them to be false; and you have perseverance and have endured for My name’s sake, and have not grown weary. But I have this against you, that you have left your first love. Therefore remember from where you have fallen, and repent and do the deeds you did at first; or else I am coming to you and will remove your lampstand out of its place -- unless you repent” (Revelation 2:2-5).

Here we see a great example of what happens when the truth of God takes precedence over the God of truth, and propositions about God become more important than God Himself. It is the grossest form of idolatry! We must be aware that God is not a proposition to be learned, but a treasure to be discovered. Truths about God are not to be stored away like so many books in an old library, but they are to be esteemed and applied to our lives. The Christian life is based on facts, but it is more than factual. It is relational.

Out of the Mouth of Babes

As I read through the articles for this edition of the HeartCry magazine, I was especially moved by the young students and their accounts of being used of the Lord. Their language is sometimes awkward and they do not communicate their ideas with the precision of a trained theologian or the caution of a mature believer, but they have some things that are often missing in the most theological and mature among us - a zeal for serving the Lord, a childlike faith that sees everything as an undeniable miracle of God’s providence, and an almost uncontainable excitement and appreciation for being used of the Lord.
V olume 44

In my Christian life, I have discovered that my ability to learn a truth is often greater than my ability to retain it. How many lessons must I learn over and over again? Every time I listen to the testimony of a “babe in Christ”, I realize that they are experiencing truths that I have “stored away” in my library of knowledge, but no longer seem to experience.

As we are admonished in Jesus’ warning to the church in Ephesus, it is often necessary for those of us who have many years in the faith to “remember from where we have fallen.” The following is a list of things that have been helpful for me to remember:

Remember when...

Remember when the disgusting sight of your sin was suddenly eclipsed by a vision of Christ dying on Calvary for you?

Remember the first time you realized that God loved you?

Remember the moment you first believed?

Remember when you first realized that God had taken away all your sins and you were really forgiven?

Remember the first time you felt clean? Clean by the blood of the lamb?

Remember the first time you sang, “Amazing Grace” and understood what the author was saying?

Remember the first time you told someone about your conversion?

Remember the first time the Holy Spirit gave you power over a certain besetting sin?

Remember the first time you sensed the presence of Christ?

Remember the first time you were alone with the Scriptures and God showed you something in His Word?

Remember the first time after your conversion when God revealed to you a little more of what it meant for Christ to die for you?

Remember the first time you wept with joy because of what God had done for you?

Remember the first time God gave you a promise?

Remember the first time God answered your prayer?

Remember the first time you shared your testimony in front of the church?

Remember the first time you led someone else to Christ?

Remember the first time God brought you through a trial?

Remember the first time God disciplined you and you saw the value of it?

Remember the first verse you ever memorized?

Remember the first time you tithed or gave sacrificially to meet a need?

Remember the first time God led you to do something and it really was God?

Remember when you cherished time to be alone with God, to pray, and read His Word?

Remember when you could not wait to go to church in order to worship and hear the message?

Remember when you sought out fellowship with other believers just to talk about Jesus?

Remember when you did not want to talk about anything or anyone but Jesus?

Remember when you could not think of anything or anyone but Jesus?

Remember when your zeal for the Lord caused you to turn away from evil?

Remember when you prayed for God to make you like Jesus no matter the cost?

Remember when you prayed for God to use you?

Remember when you were willing to risk it all for Christ and His Kingdom?

It is good to remember...

In Christ

Paul Washer

“Remember His wonderful deeds which He has done, His marvels and the judgments from His mouth.”

1 Chronicles 16:12

Therefore remember from where you have fallen, and repent and do the deeds you did at first.”

Revelation 2:5
James Dhale and Komuni are indigenous missionaries serving in Imphal, India. They are founders of the Grace Covenant Baptist Church, the Grace Himalayan Mission which trains indigenous missionaries, and the Christian school - the Royal Ambassadors Academy (RAA). HeartCry supports several missionaries under the direction of brother Dhale. These missionaries serve in India, China, Burma, and Nepal. The following report is from 2004. Due to the abundance of reports that we receive and the limited size of our magazine, several months may pass before a report is published. We have chosen the following reports because they reflect the trials and victories of the indigenous missionary - Paul Washer

James and Komuni Dhale

"If anyone serves Me, I will honour him."
- John 12.26

The above passage was the THEME of our mission for the year 2004. The urgent Macedonian call continues to echo...

... from the Icy Himalayan Mountains
... from Africa’s sunny fountains
... from India’s coastal stand
... from Ceylon’s isle
... from many an ancient river
... even from far Southeast Asian nations
... They call us to deliver their land from error’s chain.

The Grace Himalayan Mission is spearheading a movement to reach some of the least evangelized nations that fall within the 10/40 WINDOW, especially within Southeast Asia. We thank our Almighty Father, the Lord of the harvest, who enables us to continue enlarging the place of our tent. We thank God for the churches and individuals who feel the pain of a dying world and join the rescue operation through their prayers and financial support.

One of the greatest joys for the year 2003 was the baptism of 22 Hindus, 8 Buddhists, 10 primitive animists and 11 RAA students. This conservative figure seems to be so little corresponding to the numbers of missionaries we send. However, strict instruction was given and utmost care was taken to make it as sure as possible that there are no non-Christians in the churches we established. Of course, we have other converts who are ready for baptism in some of our fields, but we must take the utmost care with their souls. Baptism services are conducted either in an open village pond or nearby river. In winter, the waters are icy cold and it is not convenient to baptize most people.

It is heartening to know that six of our thirteen churches, namely, Grace Covenant Baptist Church, United Community Baptist Church, Terekkhong Baptist Church, Maharabi Baptist Church, Phaknug Baptist Church and Gaipuinang Baptist Church will soon be self-supported. They have their own worship places with qualified pastors who can take care of their flocks. In the upcoming year, we have decided to direct the focus of our mission toward South China, Bhutan, Tibet, and Bangladesh. We are seeking to mobilize the native churches to be fully involved in foreign missions. Our resources are limited, but the need is too great to ignore. We must create an awareness for missions among our churches. The following are some of the latest updates from our mission fields:

Our three missionaries from Malom fields (at Imphal Airport) write: “We go out almost every day for outreach to the Hindus. The most difficult problem we face is the people’s belief about the oneness of all gods and goddesses. Their argument is that all religions lead to salvation and Christianity is only one of them. In spite of all this, there are others who are very open. They certainly see something different and peculiar in the lives of the believers, especially their forgiving attitude, peace, joy, and courage in the worst situations. Nolini, a heart patient who has been advised by the doctors to give herself to complete bed rest, recently brought four of her converts for water baptism. She helps us in evangelizing the women (Philippians 4: 3) and recently testified that her sickness has made her more effective in her ministry. She frequently quotes II Timothy 4:2: ‘...preach the word; be ready in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort, with great patience and instruction.’”

Joykumar and Sanathoi of Lamlongei report: “The Lord is doing wonderful things at Lamlongei. In this area, there are more than ten thousand Meiteis who are Hindus and yet there is not one Christian church. Ever since we began our little church, the number of converts and visitors is on the rise. God has blessed us so that our church has one of the best buildings in the area and we have the full support of the local leaders. We are on our way to establishing another church next to our village.”

Surchandra and his son Ningam of Phaknung write: “Even though our church building was twice destroyed and burnt down by hostile neighbors, the faith of our father is living still. After the visit of some American pastors in May 2003, we could really see the grip of Satan loosened. The ringleader and the mastermind behind the attacks on our church building was given a gift of a Bible and an American towel. It was accepted with a sigh of apology and regret. Some of the former “underground” Christians have come out openly to join our church activities. Hindu parents who cannot do anything to control their children have started sending them to our church for biblical instruction. We are amazed at how things are changing this fast.”

Ritesh Ranah from Nepal called us over the phone and reported: “Our mission in Nepal has been badly affected by the Maoist rebel movement. They attacked both civilians and missionaries. Hence, I have been forced to temporarily move to Kathmandu and Pokhara for shelter. The Lord gave me another opportunity to work with two churches in these cities. Please pray for me as I work among the youth and try to reach out to the people with the help of the local pastors.”

*Samuel Phairong from Myanmar (Burma) came and reported to us that their house church at Leichi remains faithful to God. Mrs. Mary, a young woman who works with him to evangelize the women (Philippians 4: 3) has been kind enough to let them use her house as a place of worship. For reasons known to all, it is still illegal for them to build an official church building. In spite of this, they would like to further expand their ministry to the neighboring villages of Mintha, Koudong, Anjinkong, Chomintha, Thugatin and Nongkola. These are Buddhist villages and presently under military rule with communist economic policies.

Allen Chiru has established a new church with his colleagues Joykumar, Sanathoi, and Ashie Koireng at Lamlongei. He is also very glad because he has obtained the necessary permit to preach inside the Manipur prison. Because of security reasons, preaching inside the jail was banned for a decade. His recent sermon series on the love of God has brought great change among the inmates. The prison authorities are very relieved and doing everything necessary to help brother Chiru. Instead of preaching on the verandah as in the past, our missionary teams are now allowed to come and preach in the prison hall. Imo Singh is the first Hindu convert in the prison. Although he is on death row, he has become a faithful chaplain. He preaches well and leads daily worship in his cell. Sunday is the only day when all the prisoners get the chance to worship together. Chiru and his team appreciate your prayers.

M. Lovingson and his sixteen missionaries from Senapati continue to send us many encouraging reports. He works in the Senapati District, Manipur. The Maram tribe in the district has been declared to be the most primitive tribe in Manipur. Lovingson and his sixteen missionary students have been assigned to reach the Nepalis, Maram tribesmen, and other Indian nationals (Hindus) who reside in the district. Apart from his training ministry, he is taking care of a recently established fellowship at the district head quarters. Lovingson goes from village to village preaching liberty through Jesus Christ. There are rare cases when incurable diseases are also healed by the power of God. This usually occurs where the name of Christ has never been mentioned. Praise God for His unchanging promise: “…and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.”

David, our oldest missionary (74 years old), works at Maharabi, Imphal West and has faced severe trials in the past few months. Our Grace Himalayan Mission purchased the plot of land for his present church in 1999, but he and his wife must live in a different village because there are no accommodations for them in Maharabi. Presently the church has a severe conflict. The church treasurer has been accused of misusing $70 from the money set aside for the construction of pastor’s quarters. Until this matter is resolved, pastor David will not have a place to stay.

I wonder if our letter has become too lengthy again. We will write you again and tell you more about our works. Until then, may God bless you!

In His Royal Service,
James and Komuni Dhale
The following is a report from brother Antony Simon who works as a missionary – church planter in Jerusalem. The report centers mostly around this last year’s youth camps held on the Sea of Galilee.

Out of the Mouth of Babes

Shalom from Jerusalem! May we see the Lord high and lifted up! This past month was a very busy time for us because we held three youth camps on the Sea of Galilee - one for small children, another for youth (12 to 16 years old), and still another for those seventeen and above. It was an interesting experience to say the least. It was wonderful to spend several days together camping out under the stars next to the Sea of Galilee. We had some very difficult children, but after we laid down the law and enforced some rules, things ran a little smoother. Some of them come from difficult families, but it was a privilege to be able to encourage them to go in the right direction.

One evening we were having a Bible lesson about how to respond biblically to those who do us harm. In the middle of our lesson, we were interrupted by a group of religious orthodox Jews who began shouting abuse at us and warning the children not to listen to us. Apparently they had overheard our discussions. We responded by blessing those who cursed us. They were very angry and aggressive. I rejoiced that one eleven-year boy had a discussion with one of the orthodox Jews and defended the Faith. As the Word says “out of the mouth of babes.”

One Orthodox man said to me, “God does nothing new so, therefore, the New Testament is wrong.” I pointed out to him that using the same reasoning, Judaism must be wrong because of all of its rabbinical additions to God’s Law. Sometimes it is very hard to talk to people who do not want to listen. I suppose it is what Jesus meant when He said that we should not cast our pearls before swine. The rioters called the police thinking that we would be arrested, but the police only asked us to move to a different place. They ask us to move, not because we were doing anything wrong in their eyes, but only because they could see that our persecutors were unreasonable. One policeman asked, “Who are you?” This gave us the opportunity to share our faith. Please continue to pray for those who attend our camps that they might come to know the God who made them.

At the moment, we have one volunteer who has just left us and a few others who are about to join us. One of them will be long term. Another family from South Africa will also be coming to help us for one month. If anyone has some free time and would like to serve the Lord short term in Israel, they should please contact us.

The work is going well in Jerusalem, Kiriath Gat, and Tel Aviv. Our evangelistic tours are doing very well and many are attending each week. We are also in the process of preparing a new leaflet (i.e. flyer) from which people can order the New Testament. We thank the Lord for all He allows us to do. My family is doing well. We have just returned from a family holiday in Turkey and it was a great blessing. We were able to visit Ephesus and also found many opportunities to witness. It was great fun.

I have a cousin who is the same age as me. We were brought up together and were very close. I witnessed to him many times when he lived in Israel. He now lives on a Spanish island. Recently, he was very sick and near the point of death. When I called him to see how he was, he told me he had wished that I had been by his side when he went through everything. I told him that I was praying for him. He said that he remembered all that I told him about Jesus. He also said that he agreed with me that Jesus was the Messiah, but he could not accept that Jesus was God. He then requested a Bible from me. Please pray for him. His name is Andrew. I hope to visit him in the near future and spend some time with him. Hopefully, I will be able to explain the Gospel to him more fully.

For those of you that have supported us and prayed for us - thank you. We appreciate your encouragement and prayers and all the gifts that have been sent to us. We have sought to be faithful in all that we do and with all that we have. We thank you for the part that you have played in this. Thank you for your trust. Our greetings and prayers,

In Messiah,

Antony and Dona Simon
and the Voice in the Wilderness team
Greetings to you from Jerusalem!

We continue to distribute the Jesus video and follow up those who are willing to receive it. It often provides us with a good opportunity to preach the Gospel to people. Recently, we met a family in Neve-Yakov where we had worked for a few weeks handing out tracts and putting order forms for the video in the mailboxes. By God’s grace they gladly opened their doors to us. Nina, the wife, shared with us that she was very depressed and looking for the way out. Because of the severe illness of her husband, Michael, she had begun to question the purpose of life. It is amazing how people are ready to reveal their thoughts and problems to us even though they have just met us. It was such a blessing to share the Gospel with them. God willing, His Word will bring the fruit of repentance in both their lives. We hope to visit them again and again, and to visit anyone else as long as the Lord opens the doors to us!

We continue our evangelistic tours to the Old City. I thank the Lord for the opportunity that He has given me to lead the tours and to be there to help the other brothers and sisters who are serving in this field. We always work as a team because new people often join the tour without any notice. They become interested in what we are saying and simply follow along. For example, I met a Romanian speaking couple who were just walking around in the Old City. We began to talk and it turned out that the girl, who was not Jewish, wanted to convert to Judaism. God gave me the opportunity to speak to her and her companion about the truth of the Gospel. They gave us their address and we will be visiting them very soon. Another lady who joined our tour talked to me the entire time about her life. She said that she had been brought up in a family with very definite ideas about religion, but was confused because she was hearing different things from us. She said that it would be difficult for her to deny everything that she once knew to be true because it would demand a total change in her way of seeing the world and in her way of living. I explained to her that it was the hand of God that had brought her to our tour so that she might hear the Gospel and recognize her need to change. Please, pray for this woman.

We recently wrote a constitution in hopes that it would make our church more organized in the ministry. The constitution was used by God to wake up the members to their responsibilities in the ministry. They are now much more zealous in doing the work that God has called us to do. It is a blessing to have more of them working with us. The church is more united and ready to serve God with more passion than ever before. We are not only putting great emphasis on evangelism, but we are also working very hard to disciple those who come to believe.

Please, pray for our work. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem and all Israel. I am thankful to you for everything. May the Lord bless you!

Slava after a hard day on the field. Too many “tours of duty” preaching the Gospel can wear a man out.
Leonid Banchik

For the last several months, brother Leonid has received minimum support from HeartCry, but he continues to serve the Lord with very little means. We have recently decided to substantially increase his support so that he might give greater time to the ministry.

Shalom from Israel!

Recently the congregation “A Voice in the Wilderness” in Jerusalem decided to start home Bible studies for Russian-speaking people in the city. I praise God that I have been granted the privilege to teach His Word in these meetings. We have begun with the very first book of the Bible (Genesis), and relate each study to the Christian faith and life. There were eight people who came to the first meeting. In Jerusalem, it is a wonderful beginning. Please, pray that there will be more!

We continue our home Bible studies in Tel-Aviv. We are currently studying the epistles of John. Last month we had our first baptism. Please pray for the woman who was baptized. Her name is Svetlana. She wants to be in all our meetings, but she has an evening job that does not allow her to come.

In the last magazine we published, “Hear, O Israel”, I wrote an article discussing the question of Giur (converting to Jewishness). The article is called “Giur, Who Needs it?” In some present day Messianic congregations, they are teaching Gentile believers to “become Jewish” through a process known as Giur. In my article, I tried to show Gentile believers that going through Giur is not a way to become Jewish, but rather a way to convert to Judaism. A Gentile believer who goes through Giur not only betrays his faith, but more importantly, he betrays Christ. I truly hope that the article will keep Gentile believers from making this terrible mistake.

Please, pray that the Lord will continue to show me the way in which I can serve Him. I feel that I would be more useful to Him if I moved to Jerusalem. It would be easier for me to see my brothers and sisters, and I could help them to lead the evangelistic tours in the Old City of Jerusalem. I will wait upon the Lord, because He has not yet opened the doors! Thank you for all your support and prayers. May the Lord bless you!

Making Fishers of Men

One of our greatest joys at HeartCry is to be able to support the young men and women who are evangelizing the lost and making disciples on the college campuses throughout Romania. It is not an exaggeration to say that they are some of the finest, most dedicated evangelists, disciplers, and prayer warriors that we have ever had the privilege of knowing. In the following are a few brief reports from Alex and Simona Palade and Ion and Ani Tomeci.

Otniel Witnesses to Law and Journalism Students

Otniel is a believer in Christ who is being discipled by Alex. He is learning to be bold in his faith and witness. He assists Alex in door to door evangelism in the dorms. The following is Alex’s account of a recent evangelistic outing with Otniel.

Otniel and I went together to the student dormitory. There we met three young students who were together. Two were law students from the city of Gorj, and the other was a journalism student from Fagaras. After we introduced ourselves, we asked them questions about the university, the professors, and their future plans. These questions opened the door for us to speak about God and His will for their lives. We asked them to describe the differences between the world’s values today and God’s eternal values.

Alex and Simona Palade

We have supported Alex and Simona for many years and they are very dear to our hearts. Their zeal and dedication to the Lord’s harvest is unsurpassed. The greatest problem that we have with Alex is that he often overworks himself and we must hold him accountable with regard to his health and need for rest. In the following are some excerpts from his monthly reports. Take note of how Alex and Simona are not only winning young people to Christ, but that they are discipling them and teaching them to be fishers of men!

Leonard becomes a Witness

Leonard is an engineering student at the university. He is being discipled by Alex. He has become a strong witness for Christ on the campus. The following is Alex’s account of a recent evangelistic outing with Leonard.

As Leonard and I were driving to the university campus in Medias, I was fully aware that God had answered my prayers to start a work among the engineering students. It was less than a year ago that Leonard, an engineering student at Medias, had turned to God through faith in Jesus Christ, and now he was accompanying me to preach the Gospel to the other students. Before we walked on to the campus, we prayed and asked for God’s wisdom and power to boldly witness about His Son.

The first two students we met were sitting on a bench in front of their dormitory - Alex from Sibiu and Mihai from Botosani. Mihai told us that he and his other colleagues were bored with life and that they often spent their evenings going to parties and getting drunk. They were open to the Gospel so Leonard shared his testimony with them and explained to them how the Lord had changed his life. I saw tears in Mihai’s eyes as Leonard spoke of the love of God. I could tell that Mihai knew something of the Bible, but he did not understand the way of salvation through Christ alone. Even though neither of the two young men confessed Christ, they did hear the Gospel and God seems to be working. It was also a great and unforgettable experience for Leonard.

One of them responded, “In our world today, if you do not have money, a BMW, and fine clothes you are nothing, a nobody. I know that such values are false, but that is simply the way it is, that is the reality in which we live.” I then asked them about God’s values and how they stood before Him. They made it clear by their answers that they had no peace with God because of their style of life. We then spoke with them about Christ and the peace with God that comes only through Him.

After we left the dorm room, Otniel said something very insightful: “When young people sit down and think about the realities of life, they realize that prestige, reputation, money, and sin can never bring them fulfillment. The problem is that the young people do not sit still long enough to think.” Let us pray that God will make all the young people disgusted with their sinful lives so that they might turn to His Son with repentance and faith.

Bogdan Witnesses the Power of God

Bogdan is another believer in Christ who is being discipled by Alex. He also accompanies Alex in door to door evangelism in the student dorms. Recently, Alex and Bogdan witnessed the power of God in the conversion of a young man full of scars.

Bogdan and I often visit the university dormitories in Bacau. Recently, we were received into the dorm room of four young men from Moldova, Transylvania, and Ukraine. As we spoke, God gave these young men the grace to hear about salvation in Christ alone. Three of them - Vasile, Tudor, and Ivan - seemed to be very open to hear about God, but Sergiu looked very disturbed from the moment we began to speak about the things of God.

While I was speaking, Sergiu was lying in his bed watching television, but when I finished, he confessed, “When I was in high school I had a friend who was a “repenter” from the city of Onesti. She took me to her church, but I did not like the man who was speaking, I could see that he was trying to put ideas in everyone’s head.” After speaking with Sergiu a little while longer, I learned that he had been involved in a yoga movement and believed that God was just an entity. I prayed for wisdom and grace, and God gave me the strength to share Christ with him. As I spoke, his anger and sorrow began to disappear and He accepted the True God and the salvation which is found in Jesus alone. When he finished crying out to God, he confessed to me that he had been sexually molested and that his life was full of terrible nightmares. I explained to him that only Christ could heal him. It was amazing to us that we were the first persons with whom he ever shared his terrible story. It was truly a work of God!

There are many cases similar to this where confused and hurting young people have opened their soul to us. Most young people do not share the hurt that is in their lives because they fear that others will laugh or reject them. You and I can be the one’s who listen to them and give them the message of salvation. We are the ambassadors of Jesus and we have received the command to “Go to all the world and share the Gospel to all mankind!” (Mark 16:15)

Anca’s First Time to Share

Anca is a new believer who is growing and learning to minister with the help of Simona and Alex. The following is her account of the first time she did door to door evangelism in the university dorms.

The first time I visited a university dormitory to share the Gospel was with Ani Tomeci (another HeartCry missionary). We knocked on the door and the girls invited us in. They were second year students.

I was a little intimidated, but we began sharing with the girls from a tract based upon the prodigal son of Luke 15. I was excited to discover that some of the girls had already attended some of our meetings and that one girl had heard the Gospel last summer through one of our missionaries in Costinesti.

When we left the dorm, I had a very strong desire to witness to others. I went immediately to a colleague of mine who is very opposed to Christianity and has many prejudices against all “repenters” (This is what evangelical Christians are called in Romania). I had never shared the Gospel with her before, but the Lord opened the door and I was able to present the Gospel clearly to her for thirty minutes.

Giorgiana is Used by God

Giorgiana is a young girl who has come to know Jesus as Lord and Savior. She is growing with the help of Simona and Alex. The following is an account of how the Lord used her to bring another to Christ.

Giorgiana is a student in the capital city of Bucharest. After she tasted of the goodness of God, she began to witness about Christ to all of her colleagues at the university. One day as she was explaining the way of God to some students, a young man named Florin began to laugh at her. At that time, he was practicing Yoga. Giorgiana invited him to one of the campus meetings and he came.

During the meeting, he asked for a missionary to come outside and teach him how to pray. That evening, Florin asked the Lord to enter his life as Saviour and Master. From the moment of his conversion, his life began to change and it was obvious to everyone around him that he had been “converted”. He gathered together all of his yoga books and threw them into the rubbish bin. As it is written in Acts 19:19-20: “Many of those who practiced magic brought their books together and burnt them in public… in this powerful way the word of the Lord kept spreading and growing stronger.”

Ion and Ani Tomeci

We have supported Ion and Ani for many years, and they are also very dear to our hearts. God has given them such a love for the souls of the lost that it is a source of great conviction for the rest of us. The following are some excerpts from their monthly reports.

Evangelism at the Black Sea

Between July 31 and August 6, we traveled to Costinesti (the Black Sea) for the Summer Evangelism Project with the students we are discipling. There were 104 participants (students and missionaries) from Timisoara, Brasov, Sibiu, and Iasi. The theme was “Overcoming with God” from the Epistle to the Romans.

Although there were many obstacles, God blessed us with His presence. There was some rough going in the beginning, but each day we saw more and more visible sign that God was working. God began to open up the students’ hearts and the fellowship grew every day. I saw students and missionaries alike growing in their prayer life, in their openness to the Word of God, and in their relationships with one another. From the outset, we knew that some of the students in our group were not converted, but there was evidence that God was doing a work in them. God used our main speaker, Paul Dan, to challenge every student to repent and be reconciled to God through Christ.

To summarize everything that happened that week, I will have to say that God surprised us all by working in us and through us. He also provided us the opportunity to share the Gospel with many who were lost. It was a challenge and a triumph. During our six days at the Black Sea, God opened the door for us to share the Gospel with 650 people. Many of them were very open and some even received God’s message with joy.

Student’s Testimonies

In the following are some of the testimonies of the students who participated in the evangelism at the Black Sea. For many of them, it was their first attempt to share their faith in such a setting.

Ana Reprincev from Brasov

After we presented an evangelistic film, we attempted to talk to the people about the Gospel. It was not long before I saw a man coming towards me and I began to talk to him. He interrupted me and asked: “What do I have to do to be saved?”

Lydia Sibisan from Sibiu

I began witnessing to two girls who loved the beach and the lifestyle that is lived there. I thought that they would reject the message, but I threw the thought from my mind and relied on God’s Word: “The things that are impossible with people are possible with God” (Luke 18:27). As I was telling them about Jesus Christ and about His forgiveness and redemption, I could see that He was opening up their hearts. From time to time, they interrupted me to tell me with amazement that it was the first time that they had ever heard anything like what I was telling them. At the end of our discussion, the two girls wanted to receive Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Later, when one of their friends appeared, they told him the Good News. Before we parted, we exchanged addresses and they told me with tears in their eyes that they were grateful because we told them about God. Praise the Lord!

Silviu Apostol from Bacau

For me it was a beautiful experience. It was amazing to see God’s hand at work. It was the first time that I had ever shared the Gospel on the beach and I must admit that I had my doubts. I was sure that the people on the beach would not be willing to talk to us, but the experience proved that I was wrong. There were many people whose hearts had been opened and prepared.

When I went to the beach on Monday to share the Gospel, I did not have much faith, but I kept praying that God would put in my path a person who would be responsive to the Message. God answered my prayer.

After many futile attempts on my part, I found a person who proved to be interested in the Gospel message. She filled out a questionnaire with me, and then I presented the Gospel to her. During the entire time, her friends tried to divert her attention and made fun of her. I was so sad and defeated that I was ready to give up, but God did not let me. Something or Someone kept saying, “Go on! Go on!”

As we read through a booklet on the Gospel, we were interrupted so many times that I thought the girl was no longer listening to me. Honestly, I did not expect anything from her. I thought that it was a lost cause, but through God’s Grace and to my amazement, she sincerely wanted to receive Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. In that moment, I experienced a great feeling of joy because it was the first time that someone wanted to be saved after listening to my words about Jesus!

I learned many things from this experience, but the most important to me is the fact that no matter what our feelings and thoughts tell us, God is the only one capable of working in the hearts of people and producing real transformation.

Leonard from Sibiu

When I heard that our camp was to take place at the Black Sea, I did not think it was a good idea. I knew that the people who went to the seaside were wealthy and could afford anything they wanted. I was sure that we would not find even one person who was “burdened and heavy laden” enough to want the Gospel, but I was wrong. The very first day was a shock for me. A young man stood and listened to me for almost an hour and half and did not even pretend to be bored. He actually enjoyed listening to me! At the end of our conversation, he prayed to receive Jesus as His Lord and Savior. I encouraged him to write to me about any of his problems and I promised to help him anytime I could. Please pray for him. His name is Alex.

Bogdan Sorea from Sibiu

At the beginning, I was very concerned and confused about going to an evangelistic meeting at the beach. I did not have much confidence about what was going to happen. I was convinced that the program was wrong and that the beach was not an appropriate place. Needless to say, I came to the camp a skeptic.

On Saturday I was bored and very disappointed, but on Sunday the Lord began to work. The messages that were preached by Paul Dan were used by God to change my attitude. While I was at the camp, there was a constant battle within me. I wanted to follow God, but there were other temptations pulling against me. While I was on the beach, I even met an old girl friend who invited me to her room, but I resisted. This is just an example of the struggles that I was facing.

Every morning, I experienced an extraordinary feeling of peace and rest in my soul when I listened to the testimonies of the Christians. I was fascinated by what I was seeing and hearing, but the conflict inside me was increasing every day. I praise God for brother Paul Dan and brother Alex Palade. Their testimonies had the greatest impact on my life. Because of them and brother Nicu from Iasi, I saw my great need to repent and follow Christ. I knew that there was no escaping the truth and that I would have to give myself to the Lord sooner or later. I praise Jesus Christ for the new life that He has given me. Please pray for me that I might remain constant in following Him.
Preaching the Gospel in Switzerland

I thank God for this month, for all the things that He has done, and the things that He has taught us! It is so good to know that He has the best plan and even though sometimes He tells us in the last minute, it is good to trust Him! I have learned that it is important to be sensitive to His Spirit in order to make the right decisions!

In the beginning of this year, we were invited to an international evangelistic camp in the city of Moscia, in the south of Switzerland, near Italy. The experience was fantastic! God moved in tremendous ways and as a bonus, we were able to see some of the most beautiful parts of the country! The purpose of the camp was to evangelize the international students and refugees that had come to Switzerland from all over the world. This year, there were 80 people from 29 different nations! Most of them were unbelievers and many of them were Muslims. The fellowship with the other Christians from several countries and cultures was wonderful and the morning worship services were heavenly! We worshipped on the balcony of a great hotel overlooking Maggiore Lake and surrounded by wonderful mountains covered with snow. The praises went up to the Lord in many languages and it made me long for heaven!

Everything was beautiful, but the most special times were when people from the Muslim countries drew near to... us and asked us to tell them more about our God! On the very first day of the camp, an Algerian couple asked us for a Bible! The woman returned every morning for the worship and often prayed with Brigitte. She would put her hands together and say, “Amen!” Once, she even asked Brigitte to pray for a specific need! There were others at the camp who were not so open. One man from Iraq asked that the U.S. and U.K. flags be taken off the front of the hotel! In spite of those who were closed to the Gospel, our discussion groups were made up of Muslims, atheists from China, and people from Tibet, Nigeria, Turkey, Kosovo, Macedonia, Burundi, Cameroon, France, Spain, Peru, Lebanon, U.K., Australia, Germany, and many other countries! It was like the tower of Babel in reverse. God had not scattered the people in judgment, but had brought them all together in mercy!

I am so thankful that God allowed me to see Him manifest His power among so many cultures! It is a marvelous thing to see His beauty declared through so many languages and in so many people! I am also very glad that the young Christians we brought from Romania were able to witness such a work of God first hand, and to have their vision widened. I also praise God because we did not have a single problem with our old car during the entire 5500 km trip.

Back in Bucharest

Last summer we decided to use the nice weather for the advancement of God’s kingdom. I began to see that it was not very wise to be in church on Saturday while all the lost young people were in the park. I decided that we would do our Bible study during the week and evangelize in the park on Saturday.

At 5PM every Wednesday and Friday, a group of our young people go to the park to play basketball and participate in other recreational activities. On Saturdays, when the park is packed with lost young people, we have the same activities, but on a larger scale. Our main purpose is to reach young people with the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

One Saturday, we organized a group to play volleyball and another to play basketball. Three boys and a girl who were unbelievers saw us playing and asked if they could join us. In the beginning, they cursed and used bad language, but they stayed with us for three hours and had a wonderful time! The following Saturday, the three joined us again along with many other unbelievers who brought even more of their friends. Soon, there were too many people to play our game! We had such a wonderful time that the people from the park were staring at us and even the cab drivers got out of their cars to see why we were having so much fun! A girl from a secular youth organization saw us playing and asked what organization we were from. She wanted to bring her group to the park so that they could be in the activities with us. What a great opportunity to be a testimony!

A Mission Project in Bahnea

On top of all the other things that the Lord has done, He moved in a great way through our mission project in the small village of Bahnea, in Mures county. We (a large group of youth from our church) left on Friday, and after nine hours of driving, we arrived in Bahnea. The next morning we met for worship with the group from the church and planned the activities for the day. We decided that one group would do personal evangelism, another would visit the members of the church, another would prepare the worship for the evening program, another would go to the parks and playgrounds and invite the young people, and two girls from our team would help in the kitchen.

In the evening, we went to the town’s Cultural Center to hold an evangelistic service. There were many children, a good group of young people, and some adults. We presented worship music and an evangelistic movie. The people from the village were very impressed by the message communicated in the movie. When the night was over, we invited the children to church on Sunday and asked the young people to stay and talk. There were so many opportunities to witness that we did not get back to our sleeping quarters until 11PM. It was a great opportunity to share the Gospel with many people! On Sunday morning, we held services in the church. There was a worship time, a time of testimonies, and the preaching of the Gospel. Two people received Christ! The following is a brief account of how God worked in their lives:

A Young Girl with Painted Hair

When we arrived at the church on Friday evening, we saw a girl who was dressed in a very provocative way and her hair was dyed a bright violet color! I talked to the pastor and he said that she was a lost girl from the village who was attending the church, but was still unconverted. In the prayer meeting the following morning, one of the members of our team prayed an unusual prayer that no one really understood. He said, “Lord, I pray for the only young person that you will save during our time here!” As a leader, I was a little disturbed about the prayer and wondered to myself, “Why did my brother pray that way!” The next morning, Claudia, the young girl with the painted hair, was converted. She was the only youth to be converted during our mission trip. It was a great lesson for me about the value of a soul - God is able and willing to move many people and many resources to save just one person! We were so happy to see her giving her life to Christ! She invited us all to return to Bahnea for her baptism!

The Gospel and a Blind Dog

The following was written by Magda, a girl from our mission group that was used to bring the Gospel to the second person who received Christ during our mission trip - Cristi Ciucu.
The way that God arranged things so that I would and could go on the mission trip to Bahnea is clear and simple proof that it was His will. I am constantly amazed at the way God works in every detail of my life.

I had previously decided to go to a youth conference in a nearby city with some of my friends, but I did not have much peace about my decision. A few days later, brother Cristi gave me a call and asked me if I was sure about my decision because our youth group needed me to help with the Bahnea project. I told Cristi that I had already decided to go to the youth conference, but when I hung up the phone I did not have peace about what I had told him. Because of this, I prayed and looked to God for an answer. After prayer, I felt that I needed to go to Bahnea. I could not understand why God wanted me to go, because there are many young people in our youth group who are more capable than me.

I was exhausted the very first evening we arrived at Bahnea. I had been struggling with terrible headaches, money problems, and a difficult trial in my family. I realized that Satan was trying to destroy my usefulness to God and so I prayed. I asked God to control the situation and I went to sleep.

The next day, when we were doing sports activities with other youth from Bahnea, I followed a little puppy that was acting very strange. I do not like dogs and so it was another proof that God was working and arranging everything! I soon discovered that the dog was blind. I continued to follow the dog with a friend until it led us to the owner. A forty year old woman who felt desperately alone. She told us that both her parents had died of cancer and that she was very alone in the world. When I heard these words, I knew that I needed to share with her about our Hope! I then invited her to the evening program and prayed throughout the day that she would come! That evening she came to the program and sat beside me. During the worship time, she cried and held my hand very tight. She came again the next evening and heard a powerful message on eternity. She was shaking throughout the entire message. I closed my eyes and began to pray when the preacher invited the people to come to Christ. When I looked up, I saw that the lady was raising her hand! My soul was dancing with joy because God had chosen me to bring someone to Him. The angels were rejoicing in heaven and I was fellowshipping with them in their joy! Once again, I realized that everything is garbage compared to the Lord's will for our lives.

Romania was known for its beauty before communism which left its scar on the architecture, turning the historic downtown into a grid of shoebox apartment complexes.
The Forest Church
by Mack Tomlinson

The following is a touching account of Brother Tomlinson's most recent teaching trip to Romania. Brother Mack has been a true blessing to HeartCry and the believers in Romania. We trust that his account will be a blessing to you.

Dear Ones,

I wanted to share the event that was the single most significant thing I experienced in Romania this recent trip. I was sent to preach in a village 1 1/2 hours west of Iasi ("Yash") where, in recent years, the Romanian Baptists had suffered severe persecution at the hands of the Orthodox Church. After preaching in the morning at the Baptist church and then having lunch with the pastor and his wife, I was told that I would be taken to a forest village up in the mountains to meet with a small group of believers. I knew that it was not an “organized” church, but I did not know what to expect. I was told that I would have one hour with them since we had to be back in Iasi for the Sunday evening service.

We drove about 15 miles into the rural area, then up into the hills, to a remote mountain village. We passed through very rough dirt roads over which one would think that a car could not pass. We finally stopped at a house in the village and went inside. I found ten people waiting for me. They were sitting in a circle in a small 8 ft. x 8 ft room. There were two women, one woman 60 years old, who is the only Christian in the village, and her grown daughter. She was not yet a believer, but was counting the cost as to whether or not she would repent, identify with Christ in baptism, and forsake the Orthodox religion. She has not come through yet, but was obviously being drawn by the Holy Spirit. Two women and eight children were sitting together in the room.

The old woman had been meeting with the eight children in the forest, for they had nowhere indoors to meet. They had become a “forest” church, meeting regularly outdoors in the trees. I learned that one day a little girl among them prayed to the true God that He would give them a room to meet in that was out of the cold and rain that frequented the forest. God answered her prayer when the daughter’s husband finally allowed them to meet in the small room where I found them.

As I wondered what to share, I went to John 3 and began to talk about Moses, the children of Israel, and the serpent in the wilderness. I had not gotten far when the translator stopped me, and quietly said in broken English, “They do not know who or what is Israel and they do not know who was Moses.” I was startled and moved in my heart, as I realized that I was standing before a group of people that knew NOTHING AT ALL. What was I to do? I decided to share the same truths that Paul preached in Acts 17. Afterwards, I identified Israel and Moses, and then I went to John 3 and explained the meaning of the serpent in the wilderness. I shared with them that like the serpent, the Son of God had been put on a pole to die for sinners. I closed by exhorting them to put all their trust in Christ and give themselves without reservation to Him. I then taught the people a children’s chorus which I thought they would remember long after I was gone.

When I closed, I did not know what to do. The children were dirty, ragged, beautiful Romanian children who wanted to know the true and living God. As I drove away, I could hardly take it in. God had given me the unspeakable privilege of at least once in my life doing what the apostle Paul was able to do many times - share the Gospel with those who have never heard. I will never forget it. If I do, may God smite my heart!

There were other outstanding experiences in Romania and Moldova this past trip, but none for me compared to that of meeting with the forest church - one godly woman, one seeker, and eight children. Please pray for them. And pray for me, that I will never get over it!

Love in Christ,
Mack Tomlinson
More than Missionary Support

The HeartCry Missionary Society not only cares about planting churches, but we also care about those who plant them. We are well aware of the trials that the indigenous missionary must often face and it is our desire to stand beside them in their time of need.

From Frank Karimu

The following is a letter from Frank Karimu thanking HeartCry supporters for their help after his near fatal accident on the highway. It is a demonstration of how your giving is meeting the needs of those who have left it all for the sake of the Gospel.

Dear Pastor Solomon Owalabi and brother Paul Washer,

I asked Pastor James to thank you both for your timely intervention on my behalf. Your financial help was a great relief to me as I was suffering on my hospital bed. I did not know how I would pay the bill, but God has helped me through you. I therefore write to acknowledge my receipt of $600.00 (six hundred dollars), which was delivered to me by Pastor Holdbrook and James. I have been taken to the Thirty-Seventh Military Hospital and the doctors are confident that they can help me in my condition. I am now undergoing treatment on my fingers, which are still not moving very well. Because of your help, I am able to pay my hospital bills up to date. Once again, thank you very much indeed.

In Christ,
Frank Abdul-Karimu

From Jesus Riofrio Castillo

The following is a letter from Jesus Riofrio thanking the HeartCry supporters for their help to pay a medical debt. HeartCry does not support Brother Riofrio, but he is a faithful missionary pastor who works with brother Angel Colmenares in northern Peru.

Dear Brother Paul and those who helped me,

I write to you to thank you for the offering that you gave me through brother Javier Carhuapoma. My family and I are very content to have paid our debt to the hospital and doctors. Now we can work for the Lord with peace in our hearts. We are opening a new work in a place called Nuevo Horizonte [i.e. New Horizon]. We ask that you pray for us. Thank you very much. It is our prayer that our great God will keep blessing you.

Your brother,
Jesus Riofrio Castillo

From Florencio Churata

The following is a letter from HeartCry missionary Florencio Churata. He has planted and is now pastoring a thriving work in the city of Sullana in northern Peru. He had a financial need due to complications with his wife’s pregnancy and delivery. We were able to intervene by God’s grace and through your giving.

I greet you from Sullana,

The purpose of this letter is to thank you for your financial support that has resulted in the full recuperation of my wife. Two weeks have now passed since the operation and there seem to be no further complications. Praise the Lord and give thanks to His Name! We will return to the doctor in another week for the last check up.

Honestly, it was impossible for us to obtain the needed money by our own power, but we did not doubt God. We give thanks to Him that we are now content and very relieved. My wife is very happy and thankful for what you have done for her. It was so difficult to watch her crying because of the pain and because we had no money to go to a doctor. But now everything is normal and the burden has been taken off our backs. We are happy to have brothers and sisters in Christ like you who help us without tiring. ¡DIOS LES BENDIGA HERMANOS! (God bless you, brothers).

We are thankful to God and to you beloved brothers. We only ask that you continue praying for our ministry and us. Although the doctor has ordered my wife to rest, she has already visited several sisters in the church to encourage them in their Christian life. She says that it is difficult to rest when there is so much work to be done in the Lord’s harvest.

Your servant,
Florencio Churata
“The Attributes of God”

There will be a total of ten teaching sessions that will cover such themes as the Holiness and Beauty of God, His Justice and Wrath, His Power and Sovereignty, His Love and Grace, and many others. Considering the theme, it is understandable why we have never been more excited and more fearful about a conference. It is the preacher’s glory to exalt the attributes of God and yet it is a humbling and fearful thing. “And who is sufficient for these things?” Therefore, pray that God will et glory for Himself out of the weak vessels of clay that will be speaking. There will be several speakers at this year’s conference. So far, we have confirmed only three: Pastor Mike Morrow, Pastor Charles Leiter, and Paul Washer. We look forward to fellowship with you.

Thursday, September 8th
- Session #1- The Holiness of God
- Session #2- The Justice of God

Friday, September 9th
- Session #3- The Truth of God
- Session #4- The Power of God
- Session #5- The Sovereignty of God
- Session #6- The Wrath of God

Saturday, September 10th
- Session #7- The Love of God
- Session #8- The Mercy and Grace of God
- Session #9- The Glory and Beauty of God
- Session #10- The Glory of God in the Face of Christ

Conference Fee

There will be no charge for this year’s conference. However, we will receive donations to offset the costs incurred. Registration will be required.

A registration form will be mailed to you shortly.

What part of “GO” do you not understand? Matthew 28:18-20
