Today's Question/Thought

Mission Report

A message from Eric & Julie Swanson
Wycliffe Bible Translators Papua New Guinea (PNG)

Thank you so much for your support for our family here in PNG with Wycliffe. Our family continues to support Bible translation in the Asia/Pacific area. Eric has been working on two prayer videos to help people pray for Bible translation in Papua New Guinea. I, Julie, continue to teach the children of Bible translators and support workers here in the Ukarumpa International School and to teach Sunday school. Elizabeth, our 18 year old daughter, joined other 12th graders on a mission trip to street people in the city of Lae, PNG over Christmas break. She painted the building where the ministry to homeless people operates. In August, she plans to attend Liberty University in Virginia. Just before Christmas, our children, I, and others went to the local hospital to pass out cookies and pray for the patients there. The patients were in large rooms with many beds in each room. Their family members were there with them. Please pray for strength and health for our family. We plan to come back to the U.S. in July. We plan to come visit you all at some point and then return to PNG. Eric and Julie Swanson.
