Stop by our newly installed bulletin board (located between the nursery and the kitchen) to find out more about what's going on in our church body! You'll find under the "Official" section important information concerning our church body including announcements from your elders, upcoming events, ministry opportunities, etc. The "Community" section is for you! If there is something that you think would be of interest or would benefit the rest of the church, feel free to post it here! (Do you own your own small business? Leave a business card! Do you have an item to give away or for sale? Post an ad on the board! Do you know of a work or volunteer opportunity? Share it on the board!)
