Acts 9:19b-31

WHERE TO BEGIN?

Do you know anyone who's become a Christian even though you would have thought it was highly unlikely?

DIGGING IN: What was the message about?

What was your biggest takeaway from the message?

This passage of Acts offers three marks of a Christian disciple: Joining other disciples, boldly sharing Jesus and enduring persecution. What might enduring persecution, or simply enduring, look like for an American Christian today?

LIVE IT OUT: What do we do?

Of the three marks of a disciple, which one was the first sign confirming that you were becoming mature?

If you feel like you're falling short in boldly sharing Jesus, what are some helpful steps you can take to become bolder?

PRAY

Pray that we would all become mature disciples of Christ.
