SERMON DISCUSSION GUIDE

I Tim. 6:9-10

WHERE TO BEGIN?

What are your greatest temptations when it comes to spending money?

DIGGING IN: What was the message about?

Are you ever tempted to seek your security in your bank account instead of in God?

Is there anything about your spending that you're at least a little reluctant to share with others?

LIVE IT OUT: What do we do?

In defending yourself against temptation, are there ways in which you're able to simply flee from it?

Do you have other believers with whom you can transparently share your life?

[Family Question]: Are there ways in which we are tempted to spend money on things we don't need?

PRAY

Pray that we would resist the temptations of pursuing wealth.
