

MILL CREEK COMMUNITY CHURCH
SERMON DISCUSSION GUIDE

Phil. 3:12-16

WHERE TO BEGIN?

Have you ever started a race or other athletic endeavor that you didn't finish?

DIGGING IN: What was the message about?

What are some ways our Christian life is like a race?

Is it possible to be on the sidelines and not realize you're in a race?

LIVE IT OUT: What do we do?

In your own Christian race, do you tend to run too slowly or for too short a distance?

Is there anything you can do to run your race better?

[Family Question]: Do we each feel like we're in a lifelong race?

PRAY

Pray that we would run our race well and focus on the true finish line.

MILL CREEK COMMUNITY CHURCH
SERMON NOTES

Today's Text: Phil. 3:12-16

July 15, 2018

Reasons we are not running the race:

I. We think we are done.

II. We didn't know we were in a race.

III. We run on our own strength.

IV. We run for a different finish line.

Sermon in a Sentence:

Run to Jesus.
