

MILL CREEK COMMUNITY CHURCH
SERMON DISCUSSION GUIDE

Phil. 4:1-3

WHERE TO BEGIN?

How do you tend to react when conflict confronts you at work, in your neighborhood or at church?

DIGGING IN: What was the message about?

Think back to a recent conflict you had. Was it one in which one person was offended but the offending person didn't know there was a conflict? Or did both people know there was a conflict?

Whichever type of conflict it was, were you actively loving the other person at the time?

LIVE IT OUT: What do we do?

How might an active love for the other person have changed the conflict?

Do you know of a conflict that doesn't involve you but that you can help resolve? How might that work?

[Family Question]: What conflicts do we have in our lives? How might we resolve those?

PRAY

Pray that at Mill Creek we will stand firm in unity.

MILL CREEK COMMUNITY CHURCH
SERMON NOTES

Today's Text: Phil. 4:1-3

July 29, 2018

Three Reasons Christians Fight:

I. We don't love each other (v. 1)

II. We keep disagreeing with each other (v. 2)

III. We don't help those fighting get along with each other (v. 3)

Sermon in a Sentence:

Stop fighting and stand firm.
