Reviewing Series 1 – Character

Reflect on the ideas, themes, and concepts that stand out in your mind from our first series.

1. Which lesson or concepts made the biggest impact on your thinking? Explain.
(e.g. "Meeting with God"; "Roles/Goals"; "Moral Purity"; "Repentance and Change"; etc.)

2. How has your answer to question 1 impacted your life, your actions, your relationships, etc. since last September?

Considering Series 2 – Content

The focus of Series 2 is our knowledge of foundational biblical doctrine and the theological distinctives of MRBC. In preparation for this series, review the "What We Teach" statements on our website.

1. Which areas of 'What We Teach' are you most equipped to articulate and defend from Scripture? In which areas do you feel the least equipped?

2. Read Ezra 7:10—What was Ezra's pattern with regard to the Word of God?

3. Read Colossians 1:28
 - a. Who is the subject of Paul's proclamation?
 - b. What is the aim of Paul's proclamation?
 - c. What is Paul's method to accomplish that aim?
 - d. What is required of us if we are to faithfully follow Paul's philosophy of ministry?

4. What specific roles does sound doctrine play in your life and ministry? (see Romans 12:1-2; Philippians 1:8-11; 2 Timothy 2:2; 3:14-17; Titus 2:1-6)

5. How does your content impact and influence the following areas of your spiritual life?
 - a. Upward: Worship of God
 - b. Inward: Your relationships in the body of Christ
 - c. Outward: Your evangelization of the lost
