

A Note From Brandon

You will find any and all information you will want to know in this brochure. This is one weekend out of the year that you can just get away from it all and enjoy being part of God's family. It's an important weekend to grow deeper in your faith and walk with Christ.

Disciple Now Is...

BIBLE STUDY: A time to unplug from the chaotic world of teenagers and plug into the real life found only in Jesus.

WORSHIP: We will be engaged in awesome worship led by a local band.

SERVICE PROJECT: We will do a service project for the community over the weekend.

RECREATION: We will enjoy group relay games.

D-Now Personalities

Spencer Davis

A native of Columbus, Georgia, Spencer serves as one of the teachers for the OLD School semester program, as a session speaker for camps and retreats and helps lead worship. His wife, Amy, has served in numerous roles around camp, including marketing director and worship leader. Amy now leads the development and design for SWO Underground Snowbird's interactive prayer chapel and is a part of SWO's creative development team for marketing and graphic designs. Married in 2006, Amy and Spencer have three children: Alani, Knox and Jed.

Chris Trammell

Chris is originally from Lafayette, Alabama. He now lives in Auburn, Alabama with his wife of five years, and 3-year-old son. He began his relationship with the Lord at the age of 13. Not long after that, he began learning how to play the guitar. The Lord then used the guitar, as an instrument, to begin a life of ministry. At the age of 16, the Lord showed Chris his calling into worship ministry. Chris has a heart for following the Spirit, and worship. Over the past 16 years, the Lord has blessed his ministry with many different opportunities to lead worship for revivals, youth events, marriage retreats, etc. across the country. He will be joined on stage by Miranda Maldonado of Edgewood Baptist Church along with supporting members of the band. Miranda is a 17 year old senior from Columbus, Ga. She has been leading worship for 4 years and has a heart for missions.
