EXPLORING CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY

This class, open to adults & HS students, will meet at 9:00 AM on Sunday mornings for the whole school year starting September 10. Team taught by Justin Taylor & Joe Jones, we will explore all of the major doctrines of the Christian faith. We'll see where they are taught in Scripture, how they have been expressed in church history, and why they are crucial to the Christian life today. Everyone is a theologian - not just professors at seminaries. So this is a unique opportunity for all of us to discover together the life-changing doctrines of the faith, and to grow as theologians in and for the church!

DISCIPLESHIP TRAINING EVENT

One-to-One Bible Reading is a half day course on how to read the Bible with another person or with a small group. The course includes teaching, practice, and practical ideas on how to get started. This training course will be offered twice so you may choose to attend on either Saturday, September 23 or Saturday, October 7 from 8:00 – 11:30 AM at NCBC. You may register and purchase an optional book ($6) beginning Sunday, September 3.

WOMEN'S SMALL GROUP STUDY

"You may not know if you suffer under shame because too often it's been categorized as guilt (which is its close cousin). It is not the exclusive domain of victims of abuse...it can linger when you have sinned against another. Shame is complicate." (Heather Nelson) Learn more at a 4 week study on Saturday mornings in September. Contact Karen Aldridge at kaldridge@newcbc.org for details. Space is limited.
