

“And what you have heard from me in the presence of many witnesses entrust to faithful men who will teach others also”.

II Timothy 2:2

The mission of M² is to equip and train believers to be disciple makers.

Dallas Willard in his book, The Great Omission, points out that the last command Jesus gave the church before he ascended into heaven was the Great Commission, the call for Christians to “make disciples of all nations.”

He further points out that Christians have responded by making “Christians,” not disciples. Willard calls this the church’s great Omission.

The church must reclaim its mission and devote herself to disciple making.

Accepting the M² challenge was the best decision I have made in a long time. Going through the Gospels brought me into a deeper relationship with God. It was so inspiring I convinced my 13-year-old son to accept the challenge also. He loves it. Thanks be to God!!! Harry Oxner

Studying the gospels has inspired me to reach out to those in need to share the mercy, grace and love of our Lord Jesus Christ. Perry Collins

By engaging with other men through the M² discipleship program, I now have a more intimate relationship with Jesus as my friend. As a disciple this program allows me to glorify God and bear fruit by making disciples. The transformation I see in myself and others by simply sharing the gospels is truly the work of the Holy Spirit. Lee Jones

The M² program is simple effective and transformative. It has amplified my hope, joy, clarity and control of thought, speech and action. The unfathomable power of the Holy Spirit awakened a thirst to know the Word made flesh, diminished anxiety and now leads me to rest in His will, and to know His peace. Participation makes for a better husband, father, and friend. There is no downside. None. Charles Nation
