Proverbs 3:13-20

1. Why is wisdom personified as a woman in Proverbs?

3. Can God use our personal discontentment in life for his glory? Explain your answer.
4. How does the order of creation relate to wisdom?
5. Where do you see the gospel in this passage?

“He lays down this truth, that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge; it is the principal part of knowledge; it is the head of knowledge; that is, (1.) Of all things that are to be known this is most evident, that God is to be feared, to be revered, served, and worshipped; this is so the beginning of knowledge that those know nothing who do not know this. (2.) In order to the attaining of all useful knowledge this is most necessary, that we fear God; we are not qualified to profit by the instructions that are given us unless our minds be possessed with a holy reverence of God, and every thought within us be brought into obedience to him. If any man will do his will, he shall know of his doctrine. (3.) As all our knowledge must take rise from the fear of God, so it must tend to it as its perfection and centre. Those know enough who know how to fear God, who are careful in everything to please him and fearful of offending him in anything; this is the Alpha and Omega of knowledge.”
