

K Group Questions for 13 March 2019

1. In what ways are we like the Israelites in Numbers 21? In what ways are we like Moses?
2. How do you respond to Jesus comparing himself to the serpent – becoming the curse for us?
3. Share an example of how God has responded to your prayers in unexpected ways.
4. What are some practical ways in which we can “gaze upon” Christ his atoning work? How can we practice these on a daily basis?

“The only people who did look and derive benefit from the wonderful cure uplifted in the midst of the camp, were those who had been stung by the vipers. The common notion is that salvation is for good people, salvation is for those who fight against temptation, salvation it for the spiritually healthy; but how different is God’s Word. God’s medicine is for the sick, and His healing is for the diseased. The grace of God through the atonement of our Lord Jesus Christ is for men who are actually and really guilty. We do not preach a sentimental salvation from fancied guilt, but real and true pardon for actual offenses. I care nothing for the sham sinners: you who never did anything wrong, you are so good in yourselves that you are all right--I leave you, for I am sent to preach Christ to those who are full of sin, and worthy of eternal wrath. The serpent of brass was a remedy for those who had been bitten.”
