

Reformation 500 & Randolph Street

On October 31, 1517 Martin Luther created a stir among God's people that would result in a return to the Scriptures and a love for the gospel of Jesus Christ. On Sunday, October 29th, during our combined gathering, we will celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Reformation by focusing on Soli Deo Gloria, the greatest fruit of the Reformation. Below you will find some information about other ways we are preparing for this celebration.

Summer/Fall Seminars

In August, September and October, Jason will teach three seminars on Sunday evenings designed to deepen our appreciation of God's work through the Reformers.

August 20 (6–9pm): A God-Centered Providence: An Overview of the Reformation

September 24 (6–9pm): A God-Centered Life: The Life and Ministry of John Calvin

October 15(6–9pm): A God-Centered Gospel: The Doctrines of Grace

Focus Texts for Reformation

Each Sunday, starting June 18, we will begin our corporate gathering by reading together the texts below. Each of these passages are designed to increase our knowledge of God and His Gospel. There is no better way to celebrate the Reformation than hiding God's Word in our hearts!
