Welcome To Redeemer!

We are a church that exists to glorify God by making disciples, living in community, and doing good to all. If you are visiting our church today, we welcome you to our worship service and Christian community. Please be sure to fill out the Visitor Pad with your name and contact information so we can serve you better. Please join us in the Fellowship Hall in the lower level for coffee and refreshments after the service. Our facility is equipped with a hearing assistance system. Please ask one of the Deacons for a receiver.

Staffed Nursery Available - for infant to 4 years old. Please see a Deacon or Greeters for directions to the Nursery.

The order of service we use at Redeemer is both biblical and gospel orientated. Every week through our liturgy we cycle through the wonderful truths of the Gospel in what can be summarized as the 5 C's - Call, Cleansing, Consecration, Communion, Commission.

God Calls us into His Presence: Worship begins with God's invitation to worship. As sinners, we can only come as the result of his gracious invitation. We respond to his call by entering his presence with singing (Psalm 100)!

God Cleanses us from our Sin: Having entered his majestic presence, we are confronted with our own sinfulness and unworthiness. We confess our sin together, and receive God's assurance of forgiveness because of Christ.

God Consecrates us to His Service: God consecrates us through the reading of Scripture and the preaching of the Word. We offer prayer, offerings, and songs of praise.

God Communes with us: God affirms his relationship with us by inviting us to commune with him at his table.

God Commissions us into the World: God sends us out into the world with his blessing that we might be salt and light, living for his glory in a watching world.

†Invocation Psalm 124:8

Pastor: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

People: Who made heaven and earth.

Pastor: Let us pray.

Confession of Sin John 13:34

A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another.

God of mercy, you sent Jesus Christ to seek and save the lost. We confess that we have strayed from you, and turned aside from your way. We have not loved others as you have loved us, but instead have looked down on them. We have not served others as you have served us, but instead have sought to be served. We have not counted the interests of others more significant than our own, but instead have thought far too much of ourselves. Have mercy, O God, and forgive our sin. Return us to paths of righteousness through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Declaration of Forgiveness Psalm 103:11-13

Hear the good news!

For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him; as far as the east is from the west, so far does he remove our transgressions from us. As a father shows compassion to his children, so the Lord shows compassion to those who fear him.

Holy Communion

Invitation to the Lord’s Table

We warmly welcome to the table all who trust in Jesus Christ for their salvation, have been baptized and have publicly professed their faith as members of any evangelical Christian church. We encourage families to come forward together, but ask that young children not partake of the elements until they have met with their Elders to make a profession of their faith. Please note that the inner rings of cups in each communion tray contains non-alcoholic wine; the outer rings contain wine.

Affirmation of Faith Heidelberg Catechism Question and Answer #1

What is your only comfort in life and death?

That I, with body and soul,
both in life and death, am not my own,
but belong unto my faithful Savior Jesus Christ,
who with his precious blood has fully satisfied for all my sins,
and delivered me from all the power of the devil,

and so preserves me
 that without the will of my heavenly Father not a hair can fall from my head;
 indeed, that everything must fit his purpose for my salvation, therefore by his Holy Spirit he also assures me of eternal life and makes me heartily willing and ready, always, to live for him.

Prayer of Thanksgiving and Consecration

The Lord be with you.

Ruth 2:4

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts!

Lamentations 3:41

We lift them up to the Lord!

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

Psalm 118:1

It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is truly right to give you thanks and praise, eternal and ever blessed God Lord of heaven and earth. Through your living Word you created all things and pronounced them good. You made human beings in your own image, to share your life and reflect your glory. In the fullness of time you gave Christ to us as the way, the truth, and the life. In the upper room Christ gave us this supper, that we should celebrate the memorial of the cross and resurrection, by which he became the source of salvation for all who put their trust in him. Therefore, with the whole company of saints in heaven and earth, with all creation in all time, we magnify your glorious Name, evermore praising you and singing:

Closing Prayer (in unison)

O Lord, in this wondrous sacrament you have left us a remembrance of your passion. Grant that we may so receive the sacred mystery of your body and blood that the fruits of your redemption may continually be manifest in us; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Sermon Text

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

²³ For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took bread, ²⁴ and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, “This is my body which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me. ²⁵ In the same way also he took the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.” ²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Points to Ponder

Maundy Thursday

The special commemoration of Christ's institution of the Lord's Supper, or Eucharist, is attested as early as the fourth century. The English name Maundy Thursday comes from the Latin mandatum novum, "a new commandment," in Jesus' words to his disciples as he washed their feet on the night of the Last Supper: "A new command I give you: Love one another" (John 13:34). In the Eastern church the day is known as "Holy Thursday". As part of the movement for renewal of historic liturgy in the twentieth century, many churches have returned to a fuller reenactment of the events of Maundy Thursday. These ceremonies include the "agape meal," or Christian love feast (its practice in the early church is suggested by Paul's correctives in 1 Cor. 11:20–22); the rite of foot washing, symbolic of the "new commandment" (John 13:1–15); the Lord's Supper itself; and the reenactment of the journey from the upper room to the Mount of Olives and the Garden (Mark 14:26). Even many non-liturgical churches observe the Lord's Supper in the evening on Maundy Thursday.

Probably no other act of Christian worship has been known by more terms and understood in more ways than the Lord's Supper; this is due in large part to the New Testament's own richness of imagery and terminology surrounding the commemoration of Jesus' action in the upper room. The Lord's Supper is an ordinance of Christ; Jesus commanded his followers to repeat his action with the words "Do this in remembrance of me" (Luke 22:19). It is the covenant meal; Jesus' words, "This is my blood of the covenant" (Mark 14:24), speak of the sacrifice that enacts the restored relationship between the Lord and his people. The Lord's Supper is a communion or participation (koinonia) in the life of Christ, as represented by the bread and the cup (1 Cor. 10:16–17), a communion not just of the individual worshiper but of the corporate church. The action of the Lord's Supper is a proclamation of Christ's victory over sin, a dramatic re-presentation of the redeeming event of Christ's death (1 Cor. 11:26). The Lord's Supper is the Eucharist, the "giving of thanks" to the Lord for his gifts of life and salvation, as Jesus gave thanks over the bread and the cup (Mark 14:22–23). Finally, it is a sacramental act, in the sense of an outward symbol or spiritual window through which a deeper reality may be grasped. Because of the wealth of its testimony to the gospel, the Lord's Supper became the central and distinctive act of Christian worship.
