We Enter into God's Presence

■ Call to Worship

Psalm 92:1–4

Leader: It is good to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, O Most High; to declare your steadfast love in the morning, and your faithfulness by night, to the music of the lute and the harp, to the melody of the lyre.

All: For you, O LORD, have made me glad by your work; at the works of your hands I sing for joy.

■ Invocation

■ Song of Adoration

Arise, My Soul, Arise

Confession of Sin

All: We come, O Lord, on this day of glory to confess our lack of trust. While we sing of your lordship over all creation, we have too often acted as though you are powerless in the face of today's events. Though you have redeemed us by your mercy, we often fail to trust you in the midst of trials and feel you are off and at times uninvolved. Just as you approached the disciples in the storm, will you draw near to us and direct our attention to your never ending love and faithfulness? Help us to live with confidence in your presence today and in anticipation of life with you forever. Amen.

Silent Confession

■ Assurance of Pardon

Colossians 2:13–15

Leader: And you, who were dead in your sins, God made alive together with Christ, having forgiven us all our sins, by canceling the record of debt that stood against us with its legal demands. This he set aside, nailing it to the cross. He disarmed the rulers and authorities and put them to open shame, by triumphing over them in him.

Songs of Praise

Worship Christ, the Risen King

Hymn 286

What a Beautiful Name

We Unite as God's People

■ Confession of Faith

Ignatius of Antioch, AD 107

All: Jesus Christ was descended from the family of David and born of Mary. He was a man. He truly was born both of God and of the Virgin. He truly took a body; for the Word became flesh and dwelt among us without sin. He was God. He ate and drank truly, truly suffered persecution under Pontius Pilate, was truly crucified and died. He suffered for us. He was also truly raised from the dead and rose after three days as his Father raised him up. He rose for us. After having spent forty days with the Apostles, he was received up to the Father, and sits on his right hand, waiting till his enemies are put under his feet. He reigns over us. Amen.
