We Enter Into God's Presence

- Call to Worship

Psalm 34:1–3

- Invocation

- Song of Adoration

God, My King, Thy Might Confessing

Hymn 5

Confession of Sin

All: O most great, most just and most gracious God; your eyes are too pure to look at iniquity, but you have promised mercy through Jesus Christ to all who repent and believe in him. We confess that we have all sinned and come short of the glory of God. We have neglected and abused your holy worship. We have dealt unjustly and unlovingly with our neighbors. We have not sought first your kingdom. You have revealed your wonderful love to us in Christ and have offered us pardon and salvation in him, but we have turned away. We have run into temptation; and the sin that we should have hated, we have committed. Have mercy on us, most merciful Father! In your Son is our salvation, in your promises our hope. Remind us that we are your children and enliven us with the Spirit of the Son, and in the end receive us into your glory, through Jesus Christ our only Savior.

Sung Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Psalm 65:3–4

Leader: When iniquities prevail against me, you atone for our transgressions. Blessed is the one you choose and bring near, to dwell in your courts! We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your house, the holiness of your temple!

- Songs of Praise

Great is Thy Faithfulness

Hymn 32

Glory Be to God the Father

We Unite as God's People

- Confession of Faith Westminster Shorter Catechism, Q. 20

Leader: Did God leave all mankind to perish in the state of sin and misery?

All: Only God solely out of his love and mercy, from all eternity elected some to everlasting life, and entered into a covenant of grace to deliver them out of the state of sin and misery, and to bring them into a state of salvation by a Redeemer.
