We Enter into God's Presence

■ Call to Worship

Psalm 85:8–9

Leader: Let me hear what God the LORD will speak, for he will speak peace to his people, to his saints; but let them not turn back to folly.

All: Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.

■ Invocation

■ Song of Adoration

Lord Most High

Confession of Sin

All: Lord, have mercy on us. We confess that we fail to live according to your Word. We are more ready to resent than to forgive, more ready to manipulate than to serve, more ready to fear than to love, more ready to keep our distance than to welcome, more ready to compete than to help. At the root of these sins is mistrust. We do not love one another as we should, because we do not believe that you love us as you do. Forgive us our cold unbelief, and make more vivid to us the meaning and depth of your love at the cross. Remind us what it cost you to give up your Son so that we might become your sons and daughters. We ask this in the name of Jesus, our only righteousness. Amen.

Silent Confession

■ Assurance of Pardon

Zechariah 8:7–8

Leader: Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Behold, I will save my people from the east country and from the west country, and I will bring them to dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. And they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in faithfulness and in righteousness."

■ Songs of Praise

Come, Let Us Sing unto the Lord

Hymn 16

We Unite as God's People

■ Confession of Faith

Scots' Confession, Chapter 4

All: We constantly believe that God, after the fearful and horrible departure of man from his obedience, did seek Adam again, call upon him, rebuke and convict him of his sin, and in the end made unto him a most joyful promise, that "the seed of the woman should bruise the head of the serpent," that is, that he should destroy the works of the devil. This promise was repeated and made clearer from time to time; it was embraced with joy, and most constantly received by all the faithful from Adam to Noah, from Noah to Abraham, from Abraham to David, and so onwards to the incarnation of Christ Jesus; all (we mean the believing fathers under the law) did see the joyful day of Christ Jesus, and did rejoice.
