SALEM

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Dear Church Family,

It is with bittersweet emotion that I write to inform you that Mary Hitchcock- Reinhart has decided to retire from Salem effective Sunday, May 27, 2018.

Mary has been on staff with Salem for over 25 years. We are extremely sad to see her retire; however, we are excited for Mary's new opportunity at Ranken Jordan Pediatric Bridge Hospital. Mary will move from half-time to a new full-time position at Ranken Jordan as a music therapist.

Mary has been a faithful servant of God in her role as Director of Music Ministry, leading The Faith We Ring and being our wonderful organist at Salem. We will miss her talent on the organ, bells and on staff; however, we will not have to miss Mary and Ted's presence as they will remain a worshipping part of our faith community. Praise God for her faithful service!

I know you will want to join me in wishing Mary the warmest of blessings in her new position at Ranken Jordan.

We will be celebrating Mary's ministry and service here at Salem at a future date.

Cards of congratulations to Mary can be sent either to the church or to her home address:

530 Ridge Avenue
St. Louis, MO 63119

God's Peace,

Rev. Terri Swan
