

~~Second~~ First Wednesday Men's Lunch JANUARY 9 AT NOON

Speaker: Clarke Wallace St. Philip's Church Parish House
corner of Church & Cumberland

Clarke Wallace grew up in Richmond, VA, and graduated from St Christopher's School and the University of Virginia. He received his MBA in International Management from Arizona State University. Clarke has lived and worked in Charleston since May 2006 with his wife, Catherine, and their three children, Ginna (22), South (17), and Penny (15).

Clarke works at Benefitfocus, a company that provides a cloud-based technology platform to shop, enroll, and manage benefits in one place. At Benefitfocus, he has had a variety of roles in service and operations over the past twelve years. Clarke is currently the General Manager of the State Government and Education vertical. Before he began at Benefitfocus, Clarke lived in Washington, D.C., for twelve years, working at In-Q-Tel, a non-profit focusing on the introduction of venture fund supported technologies into the intelligence community. Clarke also lived in Thailand for two years and was the Executive Director of the US-Thailand Business Council.

As part of the St Philip's community, Clarke has served as a Sunday School teacher—most recently for 8th graders, has participated in two trips to visit our sister church in Haiti, and is a current member of the Vestry.
