Psalm 19:7-14 – The Sufficiency of Scripture and Preaching

This week, after finishing the book of 1 Corinthians, we'll be examining how the sufficiency of Scripture relates to preaching. We'll primarily be examining a section of Psalm 19.

❖ Day 1

1. What does the word "sufficient" mean?
2. What do we mean when we say that Scripture is "sufficient"? What do we not mean when we say that Scripture is "sufficient"?
3. What passages of Scripture convey the sufficiency of Scripture? What do these passages convey about the sufficiency of Scripture?

4. How should the sufficiency of Scripture impact preaching?
5. How have you seen a conviction in the sufficiency of Scripture shape the preaching at Summit Woods or at other churches?

❖ Day 2

Read Psalm 19:7-14.

6. What does v. 7 call Scripture? What do these titles mean?
7. What does v. 7 say Scripture is? How does this impact how we think about Scripture?
8. What does v. 7 say Scripture does? What does this mean?

9. How does this impact the sufficiency of Scripture and preaching?

10. What does v. 8 call Scripture? What do these titles mean?

11. What does v. 8 say Scripture is? How does this impact how we think about Scripture?

12. What does v. 8 say Scripture does? What does this mean?

13. How does this impact the sufficiency of Scripture and preaching?

14. What does v. 9 call Scripture? What do these titles mean?

15. What does v. 9 say Scripture is? How does this impact how we think about Scripture?

16. What does v. 9 say Scripture does? What does this mean?

17. How does this impact the sufficiency of Scripture and preaching?

❖ Day 3

Read Psalm 19:7-14 again.

18. What does v. 10 highlight concerning the nature of Scripture?

19. How should this impact how we relate to Scripture – both in personal reading and preaching?

20. What do vv. 11-13 highlight that Scripture does?

21. How should this shape preaching?

22. What does v. 14 reveal about the heart of David?

23. How does this give us insight into David's view of Scripture? How do you think David would have sought to shape his words and the meditation of his heart in light of vv. 7-13?

24. How does the nature of God expressed in v. 14 impact our view of his Word? How does this relate to the sufficiency of Scripture?

In preparation for Sunday, pray that God would use the preaching of his Word to instill deep convictions concerning the necessity of true expositional preaching because of the sufficiency of the Word preached.
