Marriage is Easy

August 17, 2014

Texts: Psalm 127 and 128

1. What is your reaction to the phrase “Marriage is easy”?
2. Have someone read Psalm 127 and someone else read Psalm 128. Before they read explain that Psalm 128 parallels and is a companion piece to Psalm 127. The two go together. Psalm 127 is about how to build the house and Psalm 128 about the joy of building the house. Psalm 127 is the diagrams and architectural drawings for marriage and Psalm 128 is the enjoyment of building the marriage.
3. What does it mean that God is in the business of reversing the curses? How does this apply to marriage?
4. How can our careers become “labor in vain”? How does this affect a marriage?
5. Children are referred to as arrows. What does this imagery say about them and the archers (parents)?
6. What does it mean to “fear the Lord”?
7. Close in prayer by praying for people “By Name” and committing to become a closer disciple of our Lord by investing time in the Navigator Wheel.
