1 Corinthians 15:20-34, 58

“Hope Or Despair”

Have you ever had a situation where you were tempted to despair but in retrospect you saw that the “break” was actually good because it provided a pathway to healing (clean broken arm analogy)?

In general do you tend more towards “despair” or more towards “hope” in your life?

Which evidence of the resurrection speaks most powerfully to you? (eyewitness, empty tomb, risen Christ, etc)

Where in your life does FOMO (fear of missing out) have the potential to dominate you more than abiding in Jesus?

Since Jesus is raised, how can the certainty of my resurrection to eternal life impact my life today?

1 Corinthians 15:58 (ESV)

<sup>58</sup> Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

What “work of the Lord” might God be calling you more deeply into?

What is my “best response” to the story of the resurrection? What is our best response as a church to the story of the resurrection?
