Ephesians 2:11-22, "Welcome to the Family"

1. How many times have you moved in your life?
2. Can you recall a time that you really needed a welcoming person to help you get entrance into a new situation, school, work or church?
3. Do you struggle at all with feeling that since Jesus has captured your heart, you "belong in the family" of the church?
4. Have you come to a point in your Christian life where you really did sense that the Law was what separated you from God?
5. Do you see worship as both a vertical and a horizontal activity?
6. How does "vulnerability create welcome"?
7. Can you think of any other practical applications for our church from this passage?
