

Treasure Coast Presbyterian Church Prayer Guide

The TCPC Prayer List was last updated on November 27, 2018. If you have a request you would like to share with the church, please email it to: admin@treasurecoastpca.org

Praying for one another Keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints (Ephesians 6:18)

Pray for John Vervoort who continues to need medical attention. Pray for the doctors to be given wisdom and insight into his needs. Pray for Adele as she serves him.

Pray for the Sandovals, expecting their first child. Pray for the continued health of Julie and the baby.

Pray that those who are sick or facing surgery would find physical healing.

Pray that marriages would be strengthened.

Pray that children would grow in the knowledge of the Lord.

Pray that we would all be faithful in our callings at work and school.

Pray that the unity of the Spirit would be evident among us.

Praying for the ministry of the gospel ...that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel (Ephesians 6:19)

Jeff Lee and the ministry of RUF at the FAU campus. Pray for the students entering college for the first time - that their hearts would be open to connect with true gospel community.

Ronnie Perry, planting New Song church in West Palm Beach. Pray for God to strengthen their ministry as they connect to unchurched people in their community.

Mike and Suzanne Veitz, planting New River Fellowship in Ft Lauderdale. Praise for a core group of men in their recovery Bible study. Prayer for the Veitz family as they navigate the family challenges of being church planters

Pray that church planters and missionaries would be blessed with financial support, spiritual empowerment, favorable circumstances, harmonious relationships, and everything else necessary for the advancing of the gospel through their ministries.

Praying for the lost And Agrippa said to Paul, "In a short time would you persuade me to be a Christian?" And Paul said, "Whether short or long, I would to God that not only you but also all who hear me this day might become such as I am (Acts 26:28-29)

As you pray for friends, neighbors, and loved ones who have not yet put their faith in Christ, pray with Hebrews 2:14-15 in mind. In these verses, we see that, apart from being in Christ, we are enslaved by the fear of death. The fear of death affects us in different ways, leading us to seek maximum pleasure while alive, to pursue a moral lifestyle, to find a way to have a lasting reputation, etc. But none of these things conquers the fear of death. Pray that our unbelieving loved ones would see in Jesus the victor over the grave and that they would place their hope in the one who has made a path through death.
