

Treasure Coast Presbyterian Church Prayer Guide

The TCPC Prayer List was last updated on March 19th, 2019. If you have a request you would like to share with the church, please email it to: admin@treasurecoastpca.org

Praying for one another Keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints (Ephesians 6:18)

Rejoice with the Sandovals as they welcome the arrival of their new baby girl. Pray for continued health for Julie and the baby.

Pray for Tom Fagley, who is preparing for foot surgery this week.

Pray for Kathy Herbst, recovering from a successful neck surgery.

Pray for Jim & Susan Bonacci (friends of the Swishers) as Susan has finished her radiation treatments and has found out from her doctors that she has a possible two years left to live. Jim is post-surgery and found his cancer to be benign. Pray for the both of them and for the Swishers as they minister to their neighbors.

Pray that those who are sick or facing surgery would find physical healing.

Pray that marriages would be strengthened.

Pray that children would grow in the knowledge of the Lord.

Pray that we would all be faithful in our callings at work and school.

Pray that the unity of the Spirit would be evident among us.

Praying for the ministry of the gospel ...that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel (Ephesians 6:19)

Jeff Lee and the ministry of RUF at the FAU campus. Pray for the body of believers on that campus to be effective in their witness and to be united in their fellowship

Ronnie Perry, planting New Song church in West Palm Beach. Pray for God to strengthen their ministry as they connect to unchurched people in their community.

Mike and Suzanne Veitz, planting New River Fellowship in Ft Lauderdale. Praise for a core group of men in their recovery Bible study. Prayer for the Veitz family as they navigate the family challenges of being church planters

Pray that church planters and missionaries would be blessed with financial support, spiritual empowerment, favorable circumstances, harmonious relationships, and everything else necessary for the advancing of the gospel through their ministries.

Praying for the lost And Agrippa said to Paul, "In a short time would you persuade me to be a Christian?" And Paul said, "Whether short or long, I would to God that not only you but also all who hear me this day might become such as I am (Acts 26:28-29)

As you pray for friends, neighbors, and loved ones who have not yet put their faith in Christ, pray with John 8:34-36 in mind. In these verses we see Jesus describing the state of those who have not been liberated through faith in Christ. They are enslaved to sin. Many unbelievers live under the illusion that they are free and self-determining, but Scripture is clear that, unless we are freed in Christ, we are compelled to obey sin, leading to our own destruction. Pray that the power of sin would be overcome in the lives of our friends and family, due to the entry of the gospel message into their hearts.
