

Where would you like to go this summer?

Summer is a time for the beach, the park, the backyard, the lake; for a picnic, a camping trip, a special vacation. It's a time for going places and having fun. While you are doing these fun things at these great places, take along a good book. Let it take you to those places where you can't go. An adventure is waiting for you!

So, we have chosen some books that we think you'll love and also have some books listed for you to choose. All we ask is that you enjoy the book, and then tell us about it. Find your upcoming grade level in the sheets that follow. Follow the instructions and read!

Have Fun with Summer Reading!

Rising Second Graders Summer Reading List

Last summer you read 10 books, but you might have needed someone to read them to you. This summer you can read on your own. So this summer read at least 10 books that you can read to someone else. You can pick any 10, or you can go back and read some of the ones from last year that someone had to help you read. Be sure to pick books that you can read to someone. Bring your teacher a list of the books YOU read this summer on the first day of second grade!
