

Where would you like to go this summer?

Summer is a time for the beach, the park, the backyard, the lake; for a picnic, a camping trip, a special vacation. It's a time for going places and having fun. While you are doing these fun things at these great places, take along a good book. Let it take you to those places where you can't go. An adventure is waiting for you!

So, we have chosen some books that we think you'll love and also have some books listed for you to choose. All we ask is that you enjoy the book, and then tell us about it. Find your upcoming grade level in the sheets that follow. Follow the instructions and read!

Have Fun with Summer Reading!

Third Grade 2018 Summer Reading

Choose at least two books from this list to read this summer. Bring in a list of what you read on the first day of school.

The Courage of Sarah Noble

Alice Dalgiesh

Trumpet of the Swan

E.B. White

The Borrowers

Mary Norton

Homer Price

Robert McCloskey

Rabbit Hill

Robert Lawson

Ben and Me

Robert Lawson