

Where would you like to go this summer?

Summer is a time for the beach, the park, the backyard, the lake; for a picnic, a camping trip, a special vacation. It's a time for going places and having fun. While you are doing these fun things at these great places, take along a good book. Let it take you to those places where you can't go. An adventure is waiting for you!

So, we have chosen some books that we think you'll love and also have some books listed for you to choose. All we ask is that you enjoy the book, and then tell us about it. Find your upcoming grade level in the sheets that follow. Follow the instructions and read!

Have Fun with Summer Reading!

RISEING FOURTH GRADERS SUMMER READING LIST

Choose two books from the following list to read and enjoy. Be sure to choose books you have not read! When you have finished reading make a really cool poster of your books so your classmates will want to read your book, too! Be sure to include the title, author, main characters, and just enough of the story so someone would want to read it, but not enough to spoil the ending.
