Our Dear Trinity Family,

Let's communicate! So let's start with this.

Some people might think that "information" and "communication" are the same. They're really not. It's been said that:

"Information is giving out.
Communication is getting through!"

For the sake of our Savior's mission in East Texas, we want to "get through!"

Our capital campaign called "For Generations To Come," is moving into its second phase. We have worked hard over the past 14 months to clarify the present and future needs of our ministry. Now it is time for everyone to know how, together, we can reach our goals. It's time for us to not just "communicate"...but to "over" communicate! We'll be telling & retelling the why & the how of the campaign story in as many ways as possible.

That's communication! That's "getting through!" We want to be able to share with you specific reasons why this campaign is essential for our ministry right now, and "For Generations To Come."

Simply put, over the next several weeks, we're praying that the Holy Spirit will move all of us from "I See" to "I Agree!"
