* CONFESSION OF FAITH: Belgic Confession XXVI
Of Christ's Intercession (alt.)

We believe that we have no access to God except through the only Mediator and Advocate, Jesus Christ, the Righteous. For this purpose he became man, uniting in one Person the divine and human natures, that we might have access to the divine Majesty, which access would otherwise be barred against us. This Mediator, however, whom the Father has ordained between himself and us, should not in any way frighten us by his majesty, or cause us to seek another according to our fancy. There is no creature either in heaven or on earth who loves us more than Jesus Christ.

If, therefore, we wanted to look for another intercessor, could we find one who loves us more than he who laid down his life for us, even while we were his enemies? If we wanted to look for another mediator with authority and power, could we find one who has more than he who is seated at the right hand of the Father and who has all authority in heaven and on earth? Moreover, who will be heard more readily than God's own well-beloved Son?
