

Hi everyone!

Hope your Christmas vacation has been a relaxing one so far and that you've caught up on sleep...or not!

We are excited about seeing you at Unity Center on Monday, January 7th. Lunch will be served-yum!

There's lots to do before FUTURE begins again and we really do need your help. All of you are expected to attend but hey, why not get out of the house for awhile and see your Unity friends?

Please tell us you're coming so we can be sure to have plenty for lunch and plan the tasks accordingly.

The Unity bus can pick you up at home (be ready and watching for the bus at 10:30) and take you home. Let us know before January 7th if you need to ride the bus.

So we'll be seeing you soon and hearing from you sooner. Have a Happy New Year!
