Call to Worship

Jeremiah 9:23-24 (ESV)

Thus says the LORD: "Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, let not the mighty man boast in his might, let not the rich man boast in his riches,

but let him who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the LORD who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth. For in these things I delight, declares the LORD."

 The congregation is asked to stand for these acts of worship.*

Invocation and The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

How marvelous are the works of the Lord, how excellent are His ways. How wonderful is His glory and fame, ever the same, great is the name of the Lord. Great is the God of Israel, and great are the works of His hands. He alone is the King of kings, creation bows at His command. Great is the God of Abraham and perfect is His law. In majesty and in holiness He rules Lord of all! Praise the Lord!

Preparation and Reflection

1. Why do we try to point out where we are better than others? Why do we try to point out what is wrong with others? List some of the ways we put others down or lift ourselves up, for example, fault-finding, passing on an evil report, bragging about our accomplishments, pointing out how our efforts were superior to others, etc.
2. With the advance of the Internet, many people think that they can diagnose themselves better than their own doctor. Why would it be better to go to a doctor than to diagnose yourself? Why is it better to have a personal, God-called shepherd, pastor-teacher, than to diagnose our Christian life without the input and oversight of a pastor? How should we respond to our God-given shepherds? See Acts 23:5 and Hebrews 13:17.
3. What are some of the difficulties that Christian leaders face according to this passage? How should Christian leaders respond to mistreatment by others inside and outside the church? Where do we find the strength to live like this?
