“THE REFORMATION: CHURCHMANSHIP, PASTORAL CARE, MUSIC AND RUBRICS”

This Twentieth annual St. Michael Liturgical Conference will focus on the impact of the Reformation on the Pastor and the Divine Service.

Keynote Address: President John Hill -

“Lessons from Luther’s Invocavit Sermons” – The Rev. John Hill will examine Luther’s 1522 Invocavit Sermons as an example of churchmanship and pastoral care in Wittenberg’s early liturgical reforms. He will include reflections from Luther’s Preface to the 1528 Visitation Articles as he speaks about the office of Bishop (or Visitor) in the church today.

Q & A with President Hill & Panel Discussion -

Fr. Mark Braden, Pastor of Zion, will facilitate a Q & A period during which conference attendees can interact with President Hill on his keynote presentation.

A Panel Discussion by this years’ presenters, joined by several distinguished guests and select Gottesdienst editors, will follow the Q&A. Questions from Conference attendees will be answered and discussed by the panel.

Workshops: Luther’s Hymnody, Luther’s Masses, and Rubrics

Dr. Reuning will revisit volume 53 of Luther’s Works, bringing to light Luther’s unique hymnodic contributions. Fr. Braden will examine the rite, rubrics and ceremony of Luther’s Latin and German Masses. Dr. Eckardt will present on the importance of rubrics under the theme “Reverence is not primarily a matter of feeling pious, but rather of taking pains.” His presentation will include commentary on the new Gottesdienst video of a full Lutheran Mass.

The workshops are scheduled so as to allow all participants to attend all workshops.
