“THE LORD’S SUPPER”

This Twenty First annual St. Michael Liturgical Conference will focus on the Lord’s Supper - the Holy Eucharist - Its Institution, Celebration, the Celebrant, and Lutheran Communion Hymnody.

Keynote Address: Dr. Naomichi Masaki - “Luther and the Lord’s Supper: The Verba Domini as the Mandating Words”. The Lord’s Supper as confessed by the Book of Concord is a record of continuous battle against diminishing Jesus and His mandating words and against those who subordinate them under some principles. The evangelical treasure of the Lord’s Supper for the life our church today comes by holding fast to the dominical mandate and institution as the point of departure.

Q & A with Dr. Masaki & Panel Discussion - Fr. Mark Braden, Pastor of Zion, will facilitate a Q & A period during which conference attendees can interact with Dr. Masaki on his keynote presentation.

A Panel Discussion by this years’ presenters, joined by several distinguished guests and select Gottesdienst editors, will follow the Q&A. Questions from Conference attendees will be answered and discussed by the panel.

Workshops: Rubrics for the Consecration, Selected Communion Hymns, and the Imago Dei:

Fr. McClean will discuss the historic rubrics attendant to the Consecration in the Divine Service.

Dr. Reuning will present selected communion hymns from Te Laudamus, his upcoming hymnal supplement, and discuss their origins and theology.

Dr. Eckardt will present on the Image of God as it relates to the Incarnation of Christ and the Pastoral Office.

The workshops are scheduled so as to allow all participants to attend.
