

What to Bring:

1. A tent to share (if you have one) and sleeping bag. You might want to call some friends and see about tenting together.
2. Flashlight, toothbrush, toothpaste, toiletries
3. You must wear tennis shoes with good soles—no flip-flops or bare feet. This is an unbending rule!!!
4. 2 six-packs of water; 1 liter of fruit juice, 1 bag of individually wrapped candy (no jolly ranchers or chocolate—they sweat and melt); 1 two-liter of pop (optional). These items last through the year.
5. Weather appropriate clothing; extra outfit in case you get wet!
6. Water Fun: girls: swim suits with shirts and shorts that can get wet; guys: swim trunks with shirts. And shoes that can get wet.

7. A great attitude!
8. Camping chair (optional—there will be folding chairs there)

A close-up photograph of a hand pouring a thick, white pancake batter from a metal measuring cup onto a dark, flat griddle. The batter is captured mid-pour, creating a smooth, circular shape on the surface. In the background, other pancakes are visible on the griddle, and a person's hand is partially seen. The background is a warm, orange-brown color.
