

SUMMER RETREAT

ON THE EDGE

June 17-21, 2019

ON THE EDGE

What: On the Edge is ZF High School's summer retreat open to rising 9th graders all the way up to graduating seniors. We will enjoy three full days of outdoor adventures including whitewater rafting, caving, and more. The evenings will include Bible teaching, camp fires, open gym, swimming, and cook-out dinners.

When & Where: June 17-21, 2019. Alpine Ministries, 161 College Drive, Mt. Hope, West Virginia. Located in the beautiful mountains of southern West Virginia.

Our Guest Speaker: Ashanti Pettaway has worked as Coordinator for Urban Praise Radio, Moody's #1 online station, as well as an evening host on Moody Radio Chicago. He currently serves as Pastoral Resident with Holy Trinity Church and Director of Training for Chicago Partnership for Church Planting. Ashanti married his sweetheart, Amanda Raquel, in 2009, and will celebrate 10 years of marriage this summer. They live in Chicago with their two children.

Cost: $300 ($150 deposit due May 15, remaining $150 due June 17). Students should bring spending money for meals on the way to and from Alpine.

How to register: Register online at zionsvillefellowship.org/high or on our Facebook page. Deadline to register is May 15.

When you submit your online registration form, you or your parent will receive a confirmation email that will contain links to our payment portal as well as to the Alpine Ministries medical waiver, and the ZF Medical Release and Liability form.
