AN INVITATION TO MEMBERS OF ALL CHURCHES AND CHAPELS IN WALES

What is your opinion?
A CHANCE TO LISTEN, DISCUSS, QUESTION AND DISAGREE ON THE NEED TO FLEE FROM ONESELF

A Seminar to be held on Wednesday 26 October 2016 (09.30 – 16.00) in the GOTHI ROOM, HALLIWELL THEATRE, UNIVERSITY OF WALES TRINITY SAINT DAVID’S CARMARTHEN, SA31 3EP.

The dark side of the soul can be seen in:
- The unbearable burden of aloneness
- A sense of hopelessness
- Lack of meaning
- And behaviours such as racial prejudice, hatred and intolerance

These are characteristics of spiritual impoverishment
- Does the church need to consider how it can offer recovery from these conditions and provide guidance?
- Does addiction, in its many manifestations, provide too easy and elusive an answer to this spiritual poverty?

The challenge to the churches:
- Is this a blessing and an opportunity for the churches to offer love, atonement and forgiveness in an age which has turned its back on religion?
- Is it an opportunity for the churches to respond to those who are searching for an answer to a spiritual problem?
- How can the churches achieve this in a practical way?

Come to listen, discuss, question, disagree

Among the speakers will be:
Elfed Ap Nefydd Roberts; John Stevenson; Denzil I John; Aled Jones Williams; Karen Owen; Sean Loughlin & R Alun Evans.

Contact the Living Room Cardiff on 029 2049 3895 to register or send an e-mail to carol.hardy@cais.org.uk

A light buffet will be provided. This seminar will be free.
