Reminders:
Information session on Church and Community Night Shelters from Housing for Justice. 27th September, 1.30-3.30pm in St Margaret’s Church and Community Hall, Chester Road, Wrexham LL11 2SH. Church and Community night shelters seek to meet the needs of those who are homeless on the coldest months of the year. By working in partnership churches can provide hospitality to those who are homeless, providing support and understanding to help people to rebuild their lives and move away from homelessness. For more information or to book on this free session contact Sarah Wheat – Engagement Officer. sarahwheat@churchinwales.org.uk 01745 532596. Poster attached for circulation.

Llanasa Parish Church is holding a Flower Festival 28 September to 1 October 2017 with the theme of Harvest Festival in aid of Church funds. Please see poster (circulated previously) for all details. Opening times will be 11am to 7pm and 1pm to 4pm on the Sunday. The admission charge will be £3 and refreshments available for £2.

Church...more than a preaching station? Oswestry, Shropshire - 14th October. This event explores whether, and how, we can proclaim the Gospel through pastoral care. It is intended for people involved in pastoral care, ordained clergy and pastors, as well as regular members of the congregation. We will take a practical look through four workshops at how churches can structure pastoral care to respond appropriately to local needs within a rural context. The event costs just £15 including handouts and a light lunch. Bookings must be made in advance and we are able to accept card or cheque payments. A limited number of childcare places are available. Full details of the event and booking information can be found on our website here or on the Facebook event page.

Five churches in the Diocese of St Asaph have been nominated as one of Wales’ favourite places of worship in the 'Sacred Wales’ competition. They are:
