

RESOLUTION NO. 522 CMS

BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of Oberlin, Ohio extends its thanks and appreciation to those who supplied active support and aid in the City's successful effort to establish the constitutionality of the Fair Housing Ordinance:

TO GROVER L. SEVERS, city solicitor when the ordinance was enacted, for his legal work in achieving this landmark decision in the Ohio Supreme Court;

TO THE OBERLIN CITIZENS COMMITTEE FOR OPEN HOUSING, whose more than 500 members requested City Council to enact the Fair Housing ordinance and then raised funds to engage the services of Jack Day, Cleveland attorney, in order to file amicus curiae briefs supporting the constitutionality of the ordinance;

TO THE OBERLIN CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION, which also supplied legal aid and filed an amicus curiae brief defending the constitutionality of the ordinance.
