

RESOLUTION NO. 700 CMS

WHEREAS, Martin Luther King, distinguished clergyman and dedicated civil rights leader, was assassinated on April 14, 1968, and

WHEREAS, the ideals and philosophy which he fostered for justice, brotherhood, love and peace through non-violent action have yet to be achieved, and

WHEREAS, the founders and early settlers of Oberlin pronounced these same goals.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of Oberlin, Ohio, in recognition of the goals of Dr. King, hereby declares April 14 as a day for all citizens of this community to reflect on their attitudes in human relations.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Human Relations Commission be instructed to coordinate with schools, churches, and other organizations on this date, programs appropriate for the occasion.
