Compounding and Crediting

- Dividends are compounded daily and credited to your account either monthly, quarterly, or at maturity according to the following:
- The dividend period is (monthly, quarterly) for example, if an account is opened January 1, the beginning date for the first dividend period is January 1, and the ending date of such dividend period is (January 31, March 31). All other dividend periods follow this same pattern of dates until maturity when the final dividend would be credited

Minimum Balance Requirements

For 91 day and 6 month share certificates, the minimum deposit is $500, except IRA certificates which have a minimum term of 6 months and a minimum deposit of $1,000.

For Bump-Up share certificates, the minimum deposit is $5,000.

For all other share certificates, the minimum deposit is $1,000.

- You must maintain the above stated minimum daily balance to maintain the account.

Fees

- Fees may be charged on your account. See Schedule of Fees and Charges

Transaction Limitations

- Except for Bump Up certificates, deposits may not be made to certificate accounts until the maturity date. For Bump Up certificate accounts, you may make one deposit during the term of our account in an amount not to exceed the initial balance on deposit in the account.

Early Withdrawal Penalties

- We may impose a penalty if you withdraw any funds other than dividends before the maturity date.
- For all accounts, the amount of early withdrawal penalty for your account will be equal to half the dividends that would have been paid if held to maturity. The penalty is calculated as a forfeiture of part of the dividends that have been or would be earned on the account. It applies whether or not the dividends have been earned. If the account has not yet earned enough dividends or if the dividends have already been paid, the penalty will be deducted from the principal.
- In certain cases specified in federal regulations, penalties shall not apply.

Renewal Policies

- With the exception of Bump Up certificates, all share certificates will automatically renew at maturity for same term at the current rate at time of renewal. Bump Up certificates will be cancelled at maturity and the funds transferred to the share account of member's choice.

THE FOLLOWING DISCLOSURES APPLY TO ALL ACCOUNTS.

Nature of Dividends. Dividends are paid from current income and available earnings after required transfers to reserves at the end of the dividend period. The Dividend Rate and APY are the prospective rates and yields that the Credit Union anticipates paying for the applicable dividend period.

Compounding and Crediting. The Dividend Period begins on the first calendar day of the period and ends on the last calendar day of the period. If the account is closed before accrued dividends are credited, dividend will not be posted.

Balance Computation Method

- We use the daily balance method to calculate dividends on your account. This method applies a daily periodic rate to the principal in the account each day.

Accrual of Dividends

- Dividends will begin to accrue on the business day you deposit non cash items (i.e. checks) to your account.

Online & Mobile Banking

- No per transaction fees involved. No monthly access fee. Unlimited free access via your PC and an internet connection. (Standard message and data rates may apply.)

Online Bill Pay Service

- Bill Pay service is free with any Class Act FCU checking account.
