About STAND Stage

Stand Stage, a branch of Stand Performing Arts, is an established community theatre dedicated to artistic and spiritual growth. This year-round program blends original performances with community involvement and educational opportunities, fostering creativity while supporting Keller's local economy.

Stand Ministries, founded in 2005, has a rich history of global performances and original productions that use hip-hop and pop culture to teach biblical principles. Stand Stage expands this legacy by providing a physical space for the community, students, and performers to develop their skills, connect with audiences, and participate in enriching artistic experiences.

We exist to empower the community to be all they are created to be through the performing arts, and our vision is to empower a community of artists who stand up in their faith, stand strong through life's challenges, and stand out by using their gifts to reflect God's purpose.

DIRECTOR'S NOTE

There are some stories we direct, and there are some stories that feel like they have been waiting for us. Oliver! is one of those stories for me.

I have loved this show for a very long time. There is something about its music, its characters, its humor, and especially its heart that has always stayed with me. But coming back to Oliver! now, I find myself seeing the story a little differently. Perhaps that is because I am a mother to a child who came to me through foster care and adoption.

Oliver's story is, at its heart, a story about belonging. About a child searching for a place to call home and for people who will see him, value him, and love him. That journey feels incredibly personal to me.

Family is not always defined by biology. Sometimes family is something we choose, something we build, and something we are incredibly blessed to find.

That is why I want to end with a thank you to my family.

To my son, Jax, you have taught me more about family, love, and belonging than any story ever could. I love you.

To my incredible and incredibly talented husband, Zach, thank you for being my partner through all of it, and for always believing in the stories I feel called to tell.

To my Dad, who is playing Mr. Bumble in this production, thank you for loving Jaxon as though he had always been ours. Mom would be so proud of you. I am.

To Miri, our found daughter and Jaxon's incredible sister, thank you for choosing us, for allowing us to choose you, and for becoming such a beautiful part of our family.

And to the rest of our family, both biological and found, thank you for embracing Zach, Jaxon, and me as though we had always been a package deal.

Oliver! reminds us that sometimes family finds us in unexpected ways. Sometimes it is given to us. And sometimes we choose it. I am incredibly grateful for the family we have found.

Tonight I hope you find belonging too, as we step together into in the Streets of London, 1830.

With love,
Lindsay Huffman

STAND IS A PROUD MEMBER OF

WHO'S WHO IN THE CAST

ELIAS HUTCHINS – Oliver Twist

Elias Hutchins, 14, is thrilled to make his STAND debut as Oliver! Elias loves making people laugh, and last year he and his duo partner placed 10th in Humorous Duo Interpretation at NITOC, a national speech and debate tournament. He enjoys indie and alternative music, THESA tennis, video games, costumes, beatboxing, and making and editing videos. He sings with Lux Venit Choral Academy and his church youth choir and plays youth handbells at

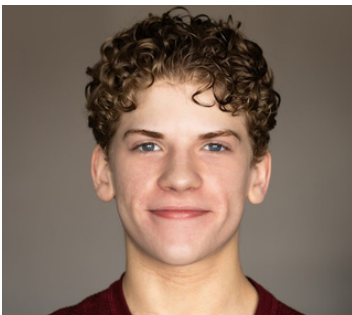

First Baptist Keller. Once a month, he serves the homeless at Beautiful Feet with his family, and he especially loves trips to Louisiana to visit relatives. Elias is also known for dispensing important life advice, such as, "One should not do a squat with chopsticks in a pocket." He is grateful to Jesus, his friends and loved ones, and everyone at STAND for welcoming him—and can't wait to take the stage as Oliver!

ZACHARIAH HUFFMAN – Fagin

Zach brings sharp wit and magnetic presence to the role of Fagin, blending humor, heart, and a touch of mischief into one of musical theatre's most iconic characters. A longtime performer with Stand Performing Arts, he has taken on a wide range of complex roles, including the eccentric Sir Leonard Astir in Peter and the Starcatcher, the intense and conflicted Gleb in Anastasia, and the steadfast Rev. Shaw in Footloose. In preparing for Fagin, Zach spent months studying sleight-of-hand magic, incorporating techniques learned from a workshop to help the boys bring the pickpocket gang vividly to life. His performance leans into Fagin's mystery — a man who has outlived all his companions and may or may not be turning over a new leaf.

ERIC HILSINGER – Artful Dodger

Eric Hilsinger (The Artful Dodger) is so thrilled to have the amazing privilege of being in this show with this phenomenal cast and production team. You may have seen him on the STAND stage recently as "Orpheus" in Hadestown Teen Edition, "Lord Farquaad" in Shrek The Musical, or "Peter/Boy" in Peter and The Starcatcher. He would like to thank Lindsay Huffman for this amazing opportunity, as well as his Friends, Family, and Stephen Jakubik.
