

“Cardiovascular disease is the number one killer for both men and women, but women are harder to diagnose, carry many more risk factors, and have worse outcomes. If we can make the risk factors go away, we can improve the outcome in women.”

– Saint Francis cardiologist Anita Kelsey