Saks Off Fifth fans will be in a frenzy as the retailer has announced the signing of a lease in the retail portion of Minneapolis City Centre.

The announcement will continue its 25-year presence in downtown Minneapolis since the outlet store decided last year to close its doors at Gaviidae Common, which took place January 17th.

“This city has been a strong market for us,” Jonathan Greller, President of Outlets, HBC, said. “Minneapolis City Center provides us with a vibrant location in which to serve our exceedingly loyal customers.”

“Saks Fifth Avenue Off Fifth is a tremendous addition to the retail component of Minneapolis City Center and we continue to see strong interest in the remaining ground-floor space from other national and regional stores,” Glenn Shannon, president of Shorenstein Properties, said. “We believe that tenant interest will absolutely be enhanced as a result of this addition to the project.”

The store is due to open April 2016 and will be located near the main entrance of the center, at 6th St. and Nicollet Mall.
