

Marva Collins Diversity Award

DIVISION FOR LEARNING DISABILITIES

The Division for Learning Disabilities' Marva Collins Diversity Award honors a special education teacher who makes a significant impact in the education of children and youths with learning disabilities who come from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds. The nominator must be a member of DLD.

The award consists of

- A $200 stipend,
- Up to $500 toward travel to a regional DLD or national CEC conference, and
- A commemorative plaque.

Timeline

Nominations are due 30 August annually.

Nominations

Please submit one nomination letter describing the nominee's contributions and providing the following information:

Nominee name: _____

Nominee address: _____

Nominee phone & e-mail: _____

Nominator name: _____

DLD (CEC) member number of nominator: _____

Nominator phone & e-mail: _____

References: In addition to the information requested above, please list two individuals who support this nomination. These references do not need to submit a letter, but they may be contacted as part of the selection process.

Reference #1 name: _____

Reference #1 phone & e-mail: _____

Reference #2 name: _____

Reference #2 phone & e-mail: _____

Send nominations to DLD Cultural & Linguistic Diversity Committee Chair: Diversity@TeachingLD.org

Visit TeachingLD.org for additional information about this and other initiatives of the Division for Learning Disabilities!

